

★Sonia's Starcaste★

By Sonia Leach

Rams(March 21- April 20) Is that person committed? Honey, you better step back. Better yet, take a number and while your waiting dwell on this, If that person leaves their fiance, what makes you think the same won't be done to you?

Bulls(April 21-May 20) "Would have, Could Have, Maybe I should have." The three have's isn't going to get you anything but in a one way ticket straight to the state of depression. Get it together, It's time to move on.

Twins(May 21-June 20) Continuously sticking your neck out for inconsiderate and selfish individuals will cause you to lose your mind. Lay low for a while, so they can realize how fortunate they are to have such a thoughtful friend.

Crabs(June 20- July 22) Don't look back! Yesterday is a vision that should only be looked on if it can provide encouragement today, in the attempts of creating a better tomorrow.

Lions(July 23-Aug 22) Good things come to those who wait if they know what there waiting for. Don't be the one who realized too late that their good thing came and passed them by.

Virgins(Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Mirror, mirror on the wall, will I ever be one of the fairest of them all? Beauty pills haven't been marketed yet, so unless your waiting for a miracle do what you have to, so you can be proud about who you are and what you have.

Scales(Sept 23-Oct. 22) Overcome temptation. Don't let anything get in the way of your responsibilities.

Scorpions(Oct. 23-Nov 21) Hey good looking don't you think you have a little too much cookin? Take pride in what you have and don't get too carried away with the things that you do.

Archers(Nov 23-Dec 21) Your beautiful smile and charming personality will brighten someone's day.

Goats(Dec 22-Jan 19) Stressed already? Go out this weekend and have a good time. You deserve it!

Water Carriers(Jan 20-Feb. 18) Gorgeous, intelligent, sophisticated, considerate etc., etc.. Sounds familiar? That's you Darling. You are a very special individual: Don't let anyone ever tell you differently.

Fish(Feb 19-March 20) It's a good time to make a change. Don't hesitate to seek the advice of another.
