As a Woman Thinks

By ELIZABETH CUSHMAN

A captain in the Army writes me a letter, which I present with a little sigh, a little gesture of weariness...

Our Children

I Didn't Know

"What have you been doing? Wading in the pond? And ruined your outfit? Just ruined it!"

The child was told. No doubt about it. But what if I? A merciful providence so created us that we could forget...

Remember the child is not to blame for this. Most of the time, it happens because we have not caught his attention sufficiently...

Then you must have him down, or put the symbol of the fact he is to remember somewhere for future reference...

BREAD AN' JAM

By WYMOND GARTHWAITZ

SAIL-HO!

Oh, for a ship! A ship for my own to steer! I sail away—way far away...

I'd fill the sails and follow for the whales! Out where the seas is all billow!

I hate to stay in a house all day! Where life is all so sorrowful!

REFLECTIONS ON A WOODEN BIRD

"You never saw a wood bird, did you? It's a thing you never do. Of course you never do..."

NURSE!

I don't think that I should have a nurse for me at all. A nurse is only meant for children that are very, very small.

And I'm not small a bit! 'Cause now I'm wearing trousers, don't you see?

And I have a nurse. Why? All the children's going to laugh at us.

Chat Body of Yours by JAMES W. BARTON M.D. Insulin Helps Kidneys, do Their Work

I have tried to liken the structure of the liver to the egg themselves and 10 cardboard boxes that hold the eggs in a crate...

Now when you have an inflammation in certain tissues of the body the regular tissue gets replaced by fibrous tissue which is just like the hard wood scar tissue resulting from a burn.

F. O. CLARK (Painter and Decorator)

Moreover, if the Army were to be represented as an institution with fortune telling booths here and there, with hog-stag parties and other such things...

The Army does not wear war, but it is its business to be ready for it. Your policy of scoffing at preparedness cost the lives of thousands of our Allies, and many of our own troops.

Tackle the men and women of other countries, Elizabeth Cushman, and convince them. Meanwhile, as we are resting and possibly enjoying our brief moments of peace...

It is such points of view as this that make the work of the young man in the Army so important...

And one more word. I know that the army is busy painting and presenting arms and being important, but I am quite firm in paying it the compliment of what I say: it really ought to have just an inkling of what else is going on in the world...

This young soldier, proud product of one of our greatest universities, evidently thinks that the idea of talking peace to my own and the other nations is a very simple matter...

"No Much of a Shower"

They tell me that while Noah was building his ark, he was visited daily by one of his neighbors who would come to spend a playful half-hour having fun with the queer old man's provisions for a great flood...
