FAIL TO PRESS CHARGE AFTER DINNER BRAWL

Prosecution of Elmer Bouner, Mamaroneck, arrested after trouble at the Asia restaurant, Armonk, early today, on charges of malicious mischief and intoxication, were dropped by Justice of the Peace Piedpiechker in North White Plains today when the complainant failed to press the charges.

A testimonial dinner given by Harrison Democrats in honor of a prominent woman leader of the party was just breaking up when State Police here were called at 2:15 a. m.

The complainant was Harry Wu, manager of the restaurant, which is run by a group of Chinamen.

When troopers arrived they found Bouner and an amount of broken furniture. He was disposed today when Wu failed to come to press the charge. It was said the management called Wu off in an effort to prevent the trouble becoming known.

A number of prominent Harrison folk attended the party.

The restaurant was closed shortly before 3 o'clock when the State Police arrived.
