

EXPECT PROSPERITY SOON

High Officials Predict a Bumper Crop and a Car Shortage.

TRAFFIC INCREASING

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson's Message—Prospect Could Not Be Better—Railroad Construction Picking Up—Prospect for a Banner Year is General.

Washington, June 11.—That the "prosperity movement" has already spread far beyond St. Louis, and is likely soon to be a fact all over the country was the opinion expressed here in high places.

Exactly what this means in terms of transportation Commissioner Lane set forth by declaring he believed that when the time came for moving the crops a shortage of freight cars would be unavoidable.

"The volume of traffic is steadily increasing," he said, "and, although it is still below what it was at this time last year, all the indications are that by the time the Fall crop is ready to be moved the increased railroad business will force a car shortage in short order."

A Profit of $1,000 an Acre.

Mr. George T. Powell, fruit grower, of Ghent, N. Y., who has made a profit of $1,000 an acre from pedigree fruit trees tells all about it in "Country Life in America."

This method is simply the propagation of fruit trees by means of buds taken from mature trees of perfect health and known records of production instead of using buds from young nursery trees which have never borne fruit or shown individual merit.

For example, you ordinarily have to wait ten years for apple trees to come into bearing, yet I have some Duchess apple trees only three years set which bore last fall all the apples they could safely carry, simply because they were propagated from a particular Duchess tree that came into bearing several years earlier than its companions.

The records show that Truelson was committed to Elmira Reformatory November 23, 1905, having been sentenced in Saratoga county on a charge of forgery.

Elmira, June 9.—A search of the records of the Elmira Reformatory utterly discredits the alleged confession of Julius Truelson, who said that he participated in the Guinness murders at Laporte.
