SILKS of the Hour in Paris.

Shown at Wanamaker's

The silk man walked about with the advertising man, and brought out on the counters piece after piece of new silk. "Here," he said, "are moires. Paris has gone crazy about black moire silk for separate coats." And there are many of the beautiful effects that the cold drops of water and the hot steel rollers produce, in combination, upon the gros-grain silk—

32-inch Crystal Moire Renaissance, $3 a yard.
44-inch Chiffon Moire Antique Bengaline and Ottoman Silks, $3.50 a yard.

23-inch Moire Lyonnaise, in new and usual watered effects, $3 a yard.
22 and 23-inch Regulation Moire Antics, $1.50, $1.75, $2 and $2.50 a yard.

"Other popular silks are those in heavy ribbed effects" he went on. "Here is the new Silk Serge, or Serge de Soie, for tailored suits, and see these superb, rich Ottoman Silks, that will make handsome spring coats, and the new sleeveless paletot." They are superb, indeed—

27-inch All-silk Serge de Soie, in the new shades of bronze, anemone, saffron, Cachou Toile, Holben, also marine and black—this silk has been selected by the best-known Paris dressmakers, and is shown in their latest models of suits and dresses $3 a yard.

New 32-inch Silk-and-wool Ottoman, specially woven, in the proper weight for Spring coats, it can be made up with or without lining, as it is alike on both sides, and can be worn with dresses of ousor, satin, cachemire de soie or foulard. A very stylish sample coat, made of this material, is shown. $3.50 a yard.

Also a strikingly handsome 31-1/2 inch Rayon de Lune—"rays of the moon"—an entirely new silk-and-wool Ottoman, in beautiful colorings, specially woven for coats and jackets; heavily ribbed plain and changeable effects, Lyons made; $5 a yard.

Then there are charming Silk Cashmeres, new Bordered Silks in delicate combinations of gauzy weave with appliqued embroidery, and the new Peplum Silks, woven and embroidered in recurring lengths, two of which will make the gracefully draped robe derived from the old Roman peplos.

The showing is beautiful, interesting, exclusive. Women will greatly enjoy seeing it. We will send samples to those who can't come. First floor, Old Building.

A Score of New Styles of LINGERIE WAISTS

They have just fluttered in—ainty as butterflies—full of the spring newness that women find so fascinating just now. The Spanish Onion Song.

How many people would guess the meaning of a "Spanish onion song"? This strange phrase—one of the many to be found in the professional al's dictionary of slang—is used to denote the music hall ballad, and owes its origin to the fact that no self-respecting member of its race would be without a pathetic reference to "dear old mother" or "somebody's sweetheart far away." Now, pathos draws tears, and so do onions. The rest is obvious.

Politely Garbled.

Sir Algernon West in his recently published reminiscences, tells this story of Robert Browning: "When he had become famous some one wanted very much to meet him. A kind friend arranged a meeting, and the guest besieged Browning with questions and conversation during the dinner, and even after dinner he continued button-holing his victim. 'Come,' said the poet, 'this will never do; they will say I'm monopolizing

Mr. Jordans Money Talked

Expended $835 for L & M. Paint to fix up his house. If for sale it would fetch a good price. The painters said it was the 3 gallons of oil they mixed with the 4 gallons of L & M. that did the job at one third less cost than ever before. Its coloring is bright, beautiful lasting. It won't have to be painted again for 12 to 15 years, because the L & M Paint is Metal Zinc Oxide combined with white lead and wears and covers like gold.

Sold by F. A. Purdy, Croton Falls Green Bros., Goldens Bridge; M. Westcott, Mahopac; Mekeel Bros., Yorktown Heights.
