TO LAND BUYERS. YOU will find it to your interest, Gentlemen, to examine a tract of Land, called Moreland, within four miles of the head of Seneca Lake. Between forty and fifty barrels of wheat to the acre were raised from new land, on this tract last year by a number of the settlers. The water is good, the timber fine, and society excellent. A very easy carriage road is making from the lake up the hill to the tract, and a turnpike through it. The terms are FIVE DOLLARS AN ACRE, Seven per cent. of the purchase money to be paid down, besides ten dollars for article money. The balance to be paid in seven years, two years without interest and great privileges to good settlers. JOSEPH SPEED, Agent. Caroline, July 16, 1827. 191f
