

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

(From Daily Union of June 20).

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stertz and maid, Dr. and Mrs. Dieffenbach and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hagen left in their automobiles this morning for Newark, N. J. Mr. Charles Hagen, who is a law student in Columbia Law School, returned with his parents.

Mr. Ellsworth D. Elston left town on Erie train One yesterday for Ithaca, N. Y., where he will join Prof. H. Ries, of the Geological Department of Cornell University as his assistant in a trip through western Canada under the direction of the Canadian Government Geological Survey. They will leave Ithaca, June 22nd for Toronto, Canada, and from there will travel west across the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific Coast, thence south to Seattle, Washington and San Francisco, Cal., returning east through the states. They expect to arrive here about the middle of September.

Mr. Charles R. Cline, of Port Jervis, was in town on business Tuesday. —Warwick Dispatch.

Miss Ella Conking, of Monticello, is visiting relatives and friends in Port Jervis and Matamoras.

Under Sheriff Isaac E. Lozier, of Newburgh, is in town on business today.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Carr, Mr. Benjamin B. Odell, Sr., and Miss Clara Odell, all of Newburgh, were guests at the Hotel Mitchell on Wednesday, while on a trip by automobile across Orange county.

Mayor Neppass was in Newburgh, Wednesday, to attend the funeral services of the late Charles Halstead.

Miss Laura Neppass and Miss Ada Van Inwegen, of Port Jervis, and Miss Bessie Mitchell, of Godeffroy, members and graduates of the Training Class last year, have closed a successful year's teaching, and will be at their homes for the greater part of their vacation.

Mrs. Wm. P. Kaufmann, President of the City Improvement Association, Mrs. S. St. John, President of The Tourist Club, and Miss Grace Wales, secretary, went to Goshen, this morning, to attend a luncheon given by Mrs. Alloway at her spacious home. Each year the "Monday Art Club" of Middletown meets with Mrs. Alloway in June, with their guests, and the meetings are always of especial interest and pleasure.

Mr. Emmet Bockover, of the State Hospital at Middletown, went to Binghamton today where he has accepted a position in the service of the State Hospital and will enter upon his new duties on Friday.

Miss Anna McCathie, of Kingston avenue, left town on Erie train One this morning for Lakemont, Canada, where she will attend the commencement exercises of the Lakemont High School.

Mrs. Ethel Soller and two daughters who have been visiting relatives in this city and Matamoras, returned today on Erie train One to their home in Great Bend, Susquehanna county, Pa.

(From Daily Union of June 21).

Mrs. David McKean and son, of this city, are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Johnston, at Lake Como, Pa.

Mr. Harvey S. Johnson, of this city, has been appointed assistant engineer on the New York Central Railroad with headquarters in Rochester. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the Port Jervis High School and of the College of Engineering of Cornell University, Class of 1911. The new position is a deserved promotion in the railroad service and is a source of much satisfaction to his relatives and many friends in Port Jervis.

A wireless message sent from the steamship St. Louis and cabled from Crook Haven, England, from Mrs. H. S. Chambers, this morning, to Rev. Uriah Symonds, says: "Both well; kind wishes to everybody." Mr. and Mrs. Chambers sailed on the St. Louis from New York last Saturday for a sojourn in England.

Mr. Arthur L. Greenwald, of Bensonhurst, N. Y., will spend the weekend at Walnut Villa, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Kevelt, of Passaic. Mr. Greenwald is a post-graduate of Columbia College. He will attend Heidelberg University in the fall.

Mr. John Meinhardt, of Passaic, will spend Saturday and Sunday at Walnut Villa, with E. N. Kevelt and family.

Mrs. James Buccanning left this city on Thursday for an extended visit in New York City and Freeport, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rhodes, of Westbrookville, accompanied by Mr. Harry Barnes, of Easton, Pa., passed through this city this morning in Mr. Rhodes' auto on a trip down the valley to Easton, Pa.

Mr. LeRoy Lamoreaux, formerly of this city, who has been residing in East Saginaw, Mich., for the past year, is visiting at the home of his parents, Engineer and Mrs. E. A. Lamoreaux, on Orange street. Mr. Lamoreaux made a brief visit at Buffalo and Niagara Falls on his way east.

Mrs. Viola Taylor, of Orange street, is visiting at the home of her son, Dr. Robert Taylor, at Spring Valley, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoessrich and Mr. and Mrs. H. Kleseler, of Lake Huntington, autoed to Port Jervis on Friday, where they passed the day, returning to their homes late in the afternoon.

(From Daily Union of June 22).

Miss Fern Dickerson, teacher of history and biology at the High School, left today on Erie train One for her home in Manlius, N. Y. Miss Dickerson will resume her work here in the fall.

Miss Anna Galusha, teacher of German at the High School, went to Cortland today for a visit of a few weeks with friends.

Miss Jessie Mann, teacher of the Training Class in the High School, started on train One today for her home in Jordan, N. Y., where she will spend most of her vacation. The young ladies of her class were at the depot to bid her good-by.

Mrs. Curtin, teacher of the Commercial Course at the High School, with her young daughter, Augusta, left on Erie Train One this morning for their home in Syracuse. Mrs. Curtin has enjoyed Port Jervis, and her work here, and will probably return in the fall.

Mrs. Beauvois Fox and little son, Beauvois, Jr., of New York, are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Claude Baird, and Mrs. Louis Shake, of Mechanic Street, West End. Mr. Fox is in attendance at the Democratic Convention, having the assignment as a reporter for the Sun.

Miss Marietta Coonrod arrived home Thursday evening to spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coonrod, of Ball street. On June 4th Miss Coonrod was graduated from the Teachers' College of Columbia University, receiving a diploma in the Art of Domestic Science with the degree of a Bachelor of Science. She has been visiting friends during the past two weeks.

Miss Anne Skinner, a student at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, and Miss Asenath Skinner, of the Stroudsburg Normal School, have arrived in Port Jervis to spend their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, of East Main street.

Mr. Harvey S. Johnson has been appointed Assistant Civil Engineer to the Engineer, Maintenance of Way, of the New York State Railways, the offices of which are located at 267 State street, Rochester, N. Y. This is the second unexpected promotion for Mr. Johnson this year and shows his ability. In January he was appointed Transit Manager, and now is Assistant Engineer over men older in years and in office service. The committee, with which Mr. Johnson is employed have been surveying for electrical roads in the western section of the state.

Rev. Paul Kasten, pastor of the German Lutheran Church, has returned from attending the Lutheran Conference in New York.

Miss Alice Neafe and party of friends, of Goshen, passed through this city on an automobile trip this morning.

Miss Elizabeth Forbes and Miss Harriet Forbes, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forbes, of New York, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Swinton, on Ball street.

Mrs. Floyd S. Cole, of West Main street, entertained a few friends at tea at her home on Friday evening, the guest of honor being her sister, Mrs. George A. Elston, of New York. Roland Symonds, who recently graduated from the St. Paul's School at Garden City, L. I., is home for the summer vacation.

The residence of the late Dr. Solomon Van Etten, at the corner of East Main and Elizabeth streets, which has been closed since last fall, will be occupied by Mr. Thomas O'Donnell, the new Trainmaster of the Erie's New York Division, and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Aber, of Avenue L, Matamoras, entertained at their home last evening. Games and music were the diversions of the evening, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Aber, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. L. J. DeBevoise.

Margaretha Rutan, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Rutan, who developed a case of measles a few days ago, is about the house again, enjoying her usual good health.

Mrs. Harry Burns, Jr., of Ridgewood, N. J., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Percival on Mary street. Mrs. Burns is accompanied by her little cousin, Mrs. Marion Percival, of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McAllister, of Santa Ana, California, are in Port Jervis visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gaudy on West Main street. Mrs. McAllister is a sister of Mr. Gaudy and has not been east in many years.

Charles W. Jones, former trainmaster of the New York Division of the Erie, was in town today in the interests of the Erie pension fund.

Chief of Police John F. Latham took George Lagerstedt back to the latter's home in New York City this morning. Officer E. V. Moorehead is in charge at police headquarters.

Some ten friends of Miss Louise Lee, gave her a linen shower at the home of Miss Mattie Werching on Culvert street on Friday evening, the same being in anticipation of an important event presently to be chronicled in the hymeneal column. An enjoyable evening was the reward of all who participated.

Mr. L. A. Johnson and family started on an auto trip today to Easton, Pa., where they will pass the weekend with their son, Harold, who is a student in Lafayette College.

Mr. Ralph O. Malles, of Plainfield, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Stage on North Broome street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morman left this city today for Youngsville, N. Y., where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. Morman's mother, Mrs. Thomas Brown, which takes place in that village on Sunday.

(From Daily Union of June 24).

Miss Margaret Speidel, of New York City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Julia Speidel, at her home on Delaware street.

Rev. George E. Gillespie, who has been spending the week at Twin Lakes, Pa., preached in New York City on Sunday.

Mr. Lloyd Stevens spent a portion of last week at the popular summer boarding house of Geo. W. T. Myers at Highland Lake.

Attorney H. B. Fullerton returned home on Saturday evening from Chicago where he attended the recent Republican National Convention.

Miss Maud Stanton, of Wurtsboro, is in this city to attend the graduating exercises that take place this week. She is a guest of Miss Lila Carmer on Orange street.

Mr. Charles Wilson, of Eldred, N. Y., was in Port Jervis on Saturday, on his way to Lima, N. Y., where he will attend the graduating exercises of the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, his son, Arthur C. Wilson, being a member of the graduating class. Mr. Wilson will also be a guest of his daughter, Miss Julia C. Wilson, who is a student in the same institution.

Assistant Secretary E. L. Norris, of the Y. M. C. A. at Rotterdam Junction, Schenectady county, N. Y., is spending a week's vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Norris on Mary street.

Mr. Patrick H. Nolan, organizer of the Mutual Brewing Company of St. Louis, Missouri, is in town on business. Mr. Nolan is also president and editor of the Liquor Trades Gazette Company, of New York City.

Corporation Counsel W. P. Gregg left town this morning for Baltimore, where he will attend the Democratic National Convention.

Mr. Edward D. Simpson, who, for the past year and a half has been connected with the Prudential Insurance force in this city, has resigned to take a position with the L. M. Jones' Ice Cream Company. Mr. Frederick G. Henry, recently a demonstrator with the Port Jervis Gas Company, succeeds Mr. Simpson in the insurance work.

The many friends in Port Jervis of Mr. Frank A. Kilgour, the well-known bluestone dealer, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home in Passaic, N. J.

Mr. John E. Eagan went to Baltimore, Md., today, where he will attend the National Democratic Convention.

Mr. Hathaway rendered two fine bass solos at the morning and evening services in the First Baptist Church.

Prof. Frank E. Carruth, of Cornell University at Ithaca, formerly an instructor in science in the Port Jervis High School, is visiting friends in town.

(From Daily Union of June 25).

Mrs. John W. Lyon left town today for Albany from which place she will accompany her daughter, Miss Frances D. Lyon, to Ottawa, Canada, to attend the convention of the American Library Association during the coming week. Miss Lyon will represent the New York State Law Library.

Mr. Russell Fox, of Erie street, has accepted a position with the Erie Railroad, and will be on duty in the round house nights, during the summer vacation.

Miss Irene Lord entertained a number of her friends Saturday afternoon at a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lord, of Washington avenue.

The young Misses had an enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. Lord served tea at six o'clock and the evening was spent playing games. The girls gave as a birthday gift to Miss Irene a very pretty clock.

Mrs. Mark Adams and Miss Jennie Snider entertained a circle of the members of the Ladies' Aid of Drew Methodist Church Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Adams on Mt. William street. The ladies of the society are entertaining circles of ten, after the style of the Endless Chain, and are having pleasant meetings, and in this way earning many dollars for the treasury of the society.

Miss Mary Broadhead, who has been visiting Miss Ruhamah DeWitt, of Prospect street, for the past three weeks, returned yesterday to her home in Greenville, Pa.

Mrs. S. Lambert and Mrs. B. Barber left town Sunday morning for a few weeks' visit with Mrs. J. M. Snyder, of New York City, and Mrs. George Snyder, of Long Island. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Snyder and granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Pantley, of White street.

Miss Lizkie Chant, of Monticello, and Mrs. W. B. Chant, of Port Jervis, left this city on Monday for an extended visit among friends at Johnstown and Gloversville, N. Y. On their return trip several days will be passed at Brighton Beach, N. Y.

Miss Bessie Goble has accepted a position in the Reuling Market on Pike street, as bookkeeper.

Miss Florence Montgomery, teacher of mathematics, and Miss Lela M. Mills, teacher of Latin, at the High School, leave town this afternoon for their homes. Neither Miss Montgomery nor Miss Mills will return to Port Jervis next year. They have been members of the High School faculty for four or five years past and leave many friends in Port Jervis incident to their residence and work here.

Master Paul Seybolt, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Seybolt, of Circleville, N. Y., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hulet Seybolt, of Orange street.

Mrs. Robert Hamilton, of Mechanic street, has returned from a visit with her brother, Mr. Howard Gould, and family, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Walter Kadel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kadel, of 82 Pike street, is visiting his parents. Mr. Kadel is accompanied by his friend, Mr. Lang, of New York. They were among the guests at the birthday party of Mrs. Kadel Monday afternoon.

Mrs. John Lord and daughter, Irene, of No. 10 Washington avenue, spent Monday in New York City. Miss Irene remained to visit for a week with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Cochran, Brooklyn. Mrs. Lord returned home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lent are removing this week from the corner of Fowler and Franklin streets to No. 6 Orange street. They hope to be settled in their new home by the last of the week.

Mr. Henry Pantley, of New York, spent the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pantley, of West Main street.

Mr. Edmund Bartels, of Brooklyn, a member of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church choir, is visiting friends in and near Port Jervis.

Miss Florence Swartwout, of East Main street, returned home Monday afternoon from a delightful visit at Boston, LaSelle Seminary, and with her aunt and uncle, Rev. and Mrs. William Peck, of Needham, Mass., and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peck, of Holyoke, Mass.

Erie Claim Agent John R. Douglas, of Dunmore, Pa., is in town today on business.

(From Daily Union of June 26).

Mrs. George Hamilton and daughter, Miss Josephine, are visiting for a week at Newburgh.

Mr. William Teller, of Binghamton, is visiting friends and relatives in this city and participated in the concert of the Munnich Brothers' Five, Drum and Bugle Corps given on Tuesday evening on Orange Square.

Mrs. John Simons, of East Main street, has returned home from visiting relatives and friends in Suffern, N. Y. and New York City.

C. L. Boughner and wife visited the family of William Muir on Canal street over Sunday.

Mr. Frank Caruth, who has been visiting friends in this city, left for Ithaca Tuesday, where he will take up his work as a teacher in the chemical department of the summer school at Cornell.

Jacob M. Nyce left this morning for Newburgh, where he is delegate at the State Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, from Carroll-Van Etten Post.

The Rev. John J. Morris received a very pleasant surprise last Monday when The Rt. Rev. Mgr. Mooney, V. G., the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Hayes, D. D., Chancellor of the Archdiocese of New York and President of Cathedral College, the Very Rev. Canon O'Connor, P. F., of Donaghy-moyn, Carrick-moyn, Cross, Ireland, and the Rev. Father Hughes, of the Cathedral, came down in an automobile from the Cardinal's residence to pay him a visit at St. Joseph's Hospital, Far Rockaway, where he is for the present taking medical treatment. They were all pleased at his improvement and expressed hopes that he would soon be well enough to return to his duties at Port Jervis. Canon O'Connor will come to Port Jervis with him on that occasion, and make a short stay before returning to his parish in Ireland. The Sisters of St. Joseph who conduct the Hospital received the guests and treated them with the utmost cordiality. Father Morris continues to improve. He is no longer confined to his bed and hopes that he will soon be back to Port Jervis. He again extends his best wishes to all his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. William Medrick, Little son, William, Jr., and Mr. Price, of Middletown, called on relatives in Port Jervis, Monday, while en route home from Mongaup, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Belting, of Middletown, at their summer home.

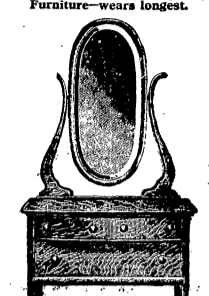

The condition of Mr. Frank A. Kilgour, of Passaic, N. J., who is ill at his home, is improving, and his many friends in Port Jervis anticipate his early recovery.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. Burdock Blood Bitters conquers dyspepsia every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight, and good health.

Baggage-master Sprained His Ankle.

Thomas Kennedy, baggage-master on the Ontario & Western railroad, was treated at the Port Jervis Hospital Wednesday for injuries of a sprained left ankle.

"Stickley's Furniture" is Quality Furniture—wears longest.

Only $13.75

For this beautiful Princess Dresser in Golden Quartered Oak. The base is 40 inches long and 21 inches wide. Two swell front top drawers and one large and deep drawer. Oval shaped bevel plate mirror, 23 by 22. Well constructed and finely finished. Retail in stores for $17.50 to $19.00. Carefully packed and shipped freight charges prepaid, for $13.75. Send for our latest catalogue of "Satisfaction furniture at factory figures." Free on request.

STICKLEY-BRANDT & CO. FURNITURE
BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

CLEARING SALE OF NEW, SEASONABLE MERCHANDISE AT COST OR LESS AT SARGENT & DENNER'S, 25 FRONT ST., PORT JERVIS, N. Y.

A record business in the early spring, led us to anticipate an increased volume of business for Spring and Summer and we provided accordingly, increasing our stocks very largely. Then came the dreary days of April and May and business only remained normal. So today we face the question of disposing of $15,000 worth of new, seasonable merchandise, some of it only coming in last week. Our regular prices are always low, none undersell us. Judge then, as you read every item quoted here, what a money-saving opportunity we are presenting.

THIS SALE STARTS SATURDAY, JUNE 29, AND LASTS FOR FIFTEEN DAYS ONLY!

LADIES' 25 CENT LISLE HOSE 18c PAIR.	75c AND $1.00 MUSLIN DRAWERS, 39 CENTS.	8 CENT CALICOS, 5c YARD.	72x90 BLEACHED SHEETS, 33 CENTS.
25 CENT LADIES' KNEE PANTS 19 CENTS.	$1.25 HOUSE DRESSES, 85 CENTS.	ONE LOT LAWN BONNETS, 75c and $1.00 value, 39 CENTS.	8c AND 10c LACE INSERTIONS, 4c YARD.
BEST MADE AMOSKREAG GINGHAM, 6c YARD.	49 CENT RUFFLED CURTAINS, 22c PAIR.	25c AND 39c CORSET COVERS, 19 CENTS.	MEN'S 39 CENT SILK LISLE HOSE, 23 CENTS.
12 1/2 CENT LADIES' GAUZE VESTS, 8 CENTS.	50 CENT DRESSING SACQUES, 39 CENTS.	$1.00 SHIRT WAISTS, Slightly Soiled, 25 CENTS.	75 CENT LONG SILK GLOVES, 49 CENTS.
12 1/2 CENT DRESS GINGHAMS, 8c YARD.	MOSQUITO NETTING, 6c YARD.	MEN'S LINEN COLLARS, 3 CENTS.	$1.50 CORSETS 97 CENTS. 18 to 23 only.
$1.00 HANDBAGS, SOLID LEATHER, 87 CENTS.	12 1/2 CENT PERCALES, 9c YARD.	ONE LOT LADIES' $4.00 AND $5.00 DRESSES, 98 CENTS.	50 CENT SEERSUCKER PETTICOATS 38 CENTS.
50 CENT COSETS, ANY MAKE, 38 CENTS.	$3.00 AND $4.00 LADIES' LINEN SUITS, $1.19 SUIT.	25 CENT LADIES' VESTS, 19 CENTS.	35 CENTS MESSALINE RIBBONS, 19c YARD.
50 CENT LONG CHAMOISETTE GLOVES, 39c PAIR.	ONE LOT STRAW BONNETS, 75c and $1.00 value, 39 CENTS.	75 CENT BOY'S WASH SUITS, 49 CENTS.	$1.50 CORDUROY WHITE SHIRTS, 97 CENTS.
$1.00 MUSLIN GOWNS, 69 CENTS.	50 CENT MEN'S POROSKNIT UNDERWEAR, 38 CENTS.	LADIES' LINEN COLLARS, 6 CENTS.	LADIES' AND MISSES' LINEN DRESSES, 97 CENTS. $1.50 value.

Any Ladies' or Misses' Suit in store at 50 per cent. less than regular prices, such as $10.00 Suits $5.00, $15.00 Suits $7.50 and so on. Children's Coats at greatly reduced prices.

We have on sale small lots of goods that would not do to advertise, as we would not want to disappoint any one on anything we advertise. We know it would pay you to get here early and look these small lots over, as we have not taken the cost or value in consideration, but have slashed the price in order to clean up as soon as possible.

SARGENT & DENNER, 25 FRONT STREET, PORT JERVIS, N. Y.