

Fill'd with Strange Pain

and wild with all regret. I prefer thoroughly repairing the condition of the wear of the lining shoes. There's a kind of misery in a hair-breadth too little of room in a shoe, anatomy has to be considered, and pedicidid symptoms, and dandruff, dandruff, points of skin, and stiffness, and forming corns, in to make modern scientific shoe-making men: wonderful things in the way of perfect results in the output. To him who has a shoe upon his foot, it is as if the whole world were covered with leather, or the old adage runs: but the modern way later with OUR Shoes on foot (Men's $1.50 and $3.00, Ladies' $2.00) get such a deal of solid comfort as makes walking seem air-treading. Foot!
