THE ROCKS PURE GOLD.

A Western Machinist Who Refused a Great Mine as a Gift.

In one of the side streets near the Oakland Ferry, San Francisco, there is general junk shop carried on by one E. T. Steen, whose daily struggle for the mighty dollar is a hard one.

Mr. Steen makes a specialty of second-hand machinery, in the purchase of which he travels considerably over the Californian mining country. Abandoned or broken down quartz mills and hoisting works are his delight.

In part of El Dorado County, called Grizzly Flats, a mine had been worked with more or less profitable results by a party of Boston capitalists.

For one reason or another the machinery at the mine did not work satisfactorily, and the ore was not crushed. It also happened that a cave occurred in the mine shaft, which so discouraged the Boston folks that they finally concluded to abandon the property.

The only thing to be done was to sell the machinery for the most money obtainable. Mr. Steen was invited to make a bid, and he visited the mine—the Mount Pleasant it was called—looked over the machinery, and offered a stated sum for it, which was at once accepted.

For seven years the Mount Pleasant Mine has yielded a net return of from $25,000 to $40,000 a month, and there it is said to be ore enough in sight now to keep the mill running ten or twelve years more.

"I have often seen the man at the Mount Pleasant mill after a day's run take up great iron buckets full of riot amalgam from the planks and have seen quartz specimens from the ledge worth many hundreds of dollars.

A Gigantic Employment Agency.

The employment agencies of New York are required to be licensed, but this is the only attention or regulation of a public nature to which they are subjected.

A Georgia physician writes to the Constitution of Atlanta, that the solution used in the hair-greases now offered so extensively for sale is easily and cheaply made by taking twenty pounds of common salt, ten pounds of sal ammoniac (sulfate of ammonia), to be had of any druggist, and dissolving in seven gallons of water.

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.

The New York World of February 9th, says: "The question as to how much of what they prefer to know doctors really know is a very interesting one."

They possess exceptionally great facilities for humbugging, and the presumption is that they are not proof in most cases, at all times at least, against temptation to make use of an ostentatious name as any that is acknowledged to be respectable.

The above criticism is fully warranted by the startling ignorance shown by the attending physicians in the Somerville case.

Too often it happens that fatal results follow in the improper course of treatment—the physician treats the patient for consumption, general debility or for nervous disorders, whilst the real disease, which is slowly destroying the kidneys and the system, is altogether overlooked or does not attract attention until too late.

Brown—"Fie, fie, my good friend, don't give way to your ailments so easily, and settle down into such gloom and despondency. There's no excuse for such conduct, when it's a well-known fact that all your bad feelings, terrible headaches, poor appetite, sense of fatigue, and lassitude, low-spirits, and hypochondria, condition are due to torpid liver and consequent indigestion, and debility, which will all give way and disappear, as the dew before the morning sun, if you but make use of that world-famed anti-bilious, tonic medicine known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
