When Jefferson Davis was buried the country thought the "lost cause" was buried with him...

If such a man as Robert E. Lee may properly be canonized or held up as a model to American youth...

He ought not to have an apologist anywhere. He betrayed it without a jot or excuse...

But perhaps the most fitting tribute that could be paid to the memory of Lee and which may go to extinction...

A Letter from Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9, 1890.

Dear Record:—I remember a remark that was attributed to Henry Ward Beecher as he entered his church one Sunday morning...

I arrived in this city Saturday afternoon at 3:30, having had a very pleasant trip indeed, devoid of any kind of excitement, and even if there had been any exciting event...

I believe I have said to your readers in former letters that of all the months of the year June is the queen in this city. Going about the city one sees nothing but beauty. The air is redolent with the perfume of sweet flowers...

On Sunday with a party of friends, including Miss Addie Hays, I visited Alexandria, seven miles from Washington down the Potomac. It was founded in 1745 and was for some years known as Bell Haven...

The weather thus far this summer, old residents say, is not as warm as in former years. If that is the case, I am glad I was not here in former years.

Weak Women. The more sensitive nature of the female sex renders women much more susceptible than men to those numerous ills which spring from lack of harmony in the system...

A Safe Investment. Is one that is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price...
