Newark State School News

John Thomas, education director, served as a resource person at the Canandaigua Academy Workshop on Community Resources for People with Special Problems, which was held on Jan. 26.

Recent visitors to Newark State School included Dr. Edward Cuddy, professor of Education, Hobart College, and the students of his class in child development.

Mrs. Helen Meyers, instructor of St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, and nine pediatric nursing students, were taken on a tour of the various wards and school building on Thursday, Feb. 1. The tour was conducted by Mrs. Mary Jane Cornwell, head nurse.

Mrs. Dorothy Everhart, assistant recreation instructor, has recently accepted two new assignments. She will conduct classes for those who wish to learn harmonica techniques, on Friday afternoons. She is also responsible for a program which is being initiated to make the lives of the blind residents happier through recreation.

Residents of the A. Moss, Girls' Hospital and E Buildings were guests of the Rochester Americans on Sunday, Jan. 28. They enjoyed seeing Rochester defeat Baltimore by a 4-1 margin. Another group of ladies are looking forward to a similar excursion on Feb. 18.

The Junior Troop 175 of the Girl Scouts held an investiture ceremony on Wednesday, Jan. 31. Refreshments were served to the 17 scouts participating.

The Friday night movies will present the following features for February: Feb. 9, "Maya"; Feb. 16, "The Singing Nun"; Feb. 23, "A Man Called Flintstone".

The Junior High and Junior Varsity Basketball Teams will play seven area schools during February. A large number of spectators continue to enjoy the Tuesday night games provided by Veljeq Institute. The All-Star Team has recently played several neighboring teams as a tune-up for their rivals, West Seneca. They will journey to West Seneca on Feb. 10. The Newark State School cheerleaders will accompany the team. The boys basketball team is coached by Warren Albrecht, Howard Wiebeld and Paul Bullock.

The girls basketball team continues to practice on Friday afternoons. They recently played the Newark Community Center on a home and home basis.

Carlos Montoya to Give Eastman Concert Feb. 17

Carlos Montoya, the world famous master of the flamenco guitar, will be heard in concert at the Eastman Theatre on Saturday, Feb. 17 at 8:15 p.m. under the auspices of the Civic Music Association.

One of the most widely heard performers in any concert idiom, Montoya has brought flamenco music to virtually every major outpost of the free world eliciting critical acclaim and audience approbation everywhere. In addition to his globe-girdling tours, Montoya also has won international favor through his numerous recordings. He is, in fact, the most recorded flamenco artist in history and has become the living symbol of flamenco music the world over.

Explorer Cabinet Tours Garlock Plant

Garlock, Inc., Palmyra, was host to the Explorer Cabinet of the Finger Lakes Boy Scout Council last Wednesday night in the plant's central cafeteria.

Explorers and their leaders made a full tour of the plant. Stan Waters, explorer program coordinator for the council, said the theme for exploring during the year will be "Exploring Tomorrow's Horizons Today." It was planned to hold each meeting of the Explorer Cabinet at an industrial or business firm. The next meeting will be held March 27.

Newark Wrestlers Lose to Wayne

The Newark Central School wrestling team bowed to Wayne Central, 37 to 8, on the Newark mats.

Dan Celso and Jeff Ceblu were the lone Newark winners. The Newark JVs also lost, 21 to 8, with Gary Fredrickson and Dave Derby scoring Newark victories.

Gary DeKruiger and Ed Herman wrestled to a 2-2 draw in the 235-pound class in the varsity competition.
