

'There Is No Death, There Are No Dead'

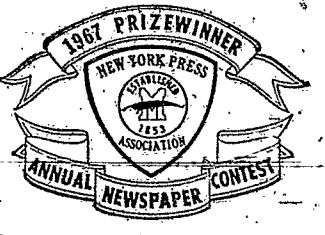

Hydesville 'Raps' Still Heard Around World

By Charley Ross
Hydesville, the birthplace of Modern Spiritualism on March 31, 1848, is not a ghost town. It was never a town in the first place. Whether "ghosts" ever roamed the area to the north of us will never be answered... The historic site, just across from Elmer Overlaw's, neighborly grocery store, once contained the 1 1/2-story wooden cottage of the Fox family...

TELLS STORY — Marker tells story of birthplace of Modern-Spiritualism on Hydesville site. Spiritualists will mark 120th anniversary Sunday.

Your Want Ad Is Easy to Place Phone 331-1000

Newark Courier-Gazette

Published Weekly—Subscription Rate $5.00 a Year in Advance—Single Copies 15 cents NEWARK, N. Y., THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1968 Entered as second class, mail matter at Newark, N. Y. 14618, Post Office TWO SECTIONS—20 PAGES

What Do You Think!

By Charley Ross
LEON VANDERBROOK, "mayor of the world," says that former Roosevelt could have had himself a lot of words by using Calvin Coolidge—"I do not know."

A POSTAL MATTER — Discussing a postal matter at luncheon meeting of Newark Mail Users' Council at the Steak Pit Inn last Wednesday were (from left) Postmaster Francis Leahy, Bentley Hahn, director of the Parcel Post Branch of the U. S. Post Office Department, and Arthur Munson postal affairs manager of Sarah Coventry, Inc. who served as chairman of the meeting.

Village Tax Rate May Stay Same

No increase in the village tax rate is seen for the coming fiscal year despite across-the-board salary boosts for all village employees. It was reliably learned yesterday that the tax rate stands at $34.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation for the fifth straight year...

Chest-Red Cross Drive Moves into High Gear

The 1968-69 Acadia Community Chest-Red Cross fund drive swings into high gear next week when the Industrial and Commercial Divisions begin their phases of the fund-raising effort, according to Charles F. Stott, campaign chairman. Stott also announced that at the same time the fund campaign scoreboards will be dusted off and put in place in the downtown and Plaza business sections within the next few days to keep people posted on the progress of the $64,545 campaign.

DIRECT DRIVE — Leaders behind the Industrial Division's role in the Community Chest-Red Cross fund drive are (from left) Donald Crowley, Richard Boorman, Frank Luerssen (chairman), Robert Fanning, James Shearer, Robert Richardson. They launched their phase of $64,545 overall drive at breakfast meeting yesterday; Division quota has been set at $23,000.

Hospital to Add New Equipment To Aid in Care

Purchase of several pieces of new equipment to improve patient care at the Newark-Wayne Community Hospital was approved by the board of directors at its monthly meeting Monday. The board voted to buy two bedside heart monitoring units to be installed in room 114 and a console to be stationed outside the room at a cost of $6,000. Under constant observation in the system would be heart patients and emergency cases. A nurse at the console would have heart tracings of the patients in view on a screen in front of her at all times, and at the slightest abnormality could take appropriate action at once. The console also contains apparatus to take electrocardiograms so a physician can check any time to time changes in heart action.

Festival to Feature 160 - Voice Chorus

A choir of 160 voices and a band of 90 musicians will feature the Wayne All-County Junior High Festival to be held Saturday, March 30, at 8 p.m. in the Junior high school auditorium on W. Miller St. Students selected by previous auditions from 10 schools in the county will make up the choir and band. Joseph Crupi of Horseheads Central School will be the guest conductor for the choir and Jack Bullock of Canandaigua Academy will be the guest conductor for the band. Both conductors are outstanding music educators who have had guest conducting assignments across the state and have exceptionally fine organizations in their respective schools. Robert Wadsworth and Chester T. Robb, co-chairmen of the festival, said the young musicians will assemble at the junior high building Friday afternoon for an initial rehearsal. Dress rehearsals will be held Saturday in preparation for the evening performance which is open to the public. Admission is 75 cents. The chorus will sing O, Eyes of My Beloved, All Ye Who Music Love, Mayday Carol, O Brother Man and Climbin' Up the Mountain. The band will play the Salutation March, Adanta Con Moto, Ballerina and Trumpets Ole. The festival is an annual event hosted by a different school each year. Newark Junior High pupils (grades 7, 8 and 9) who will play in the band are Sally Magee, Anita Waldorf, clarinets; Sue Langlands, Vicki Still, flutes; Sherman Bloomer, trombone; Bruce Radl, baritone horn; Robert Quance, tuba; Doug Goodman, Steve Quance, trumpets. Singing in the choir will be Teena Sistik, Linda Graf, Barbara Britt, Ria Alberts, Jo Anne Green, Debra Ludwig, Tim Welcher, Roger Joseph, Bruce Montana, Martin VanHall, John Wadsworth, Craig Cambier, Lucinda Harding, Peggy DePauw, Bill Ryckboost, Mark Bell, Laurie VanKovering, Jean Lagana, Debbie Matchett, Janet Lomville, Jane Skinner, Mindy Robinson, Tom Welcher, Joe Contario and Mike DeNering.

Hospital Receives $10,000 Bequest from Vary Estate

A check for $10,000 was received this week by the Newark-Wayne Community Hospital from the estate of Calvin P. Vary, a Newark native, according to Leslie J. Engelson, hospital president. The bequest from the will of Mr. Vary states, "I give and bequeath the sum of $10,000 to the Newark-Wayne Community Hospital of Newark, N. Y. It is my desire that this money be used to furnish a room or rooms with a plaque reading, 'In memory of Calvin P. H. Vary and Louise Pitts Vary, his wife.' However, I do not wish to place any legal restriction on the use of this bequest by the hospital."

Stuart D. Hallagan Dies Saturday at 73

Stuart D. Hallagan, president of the Hallagan Manufacturing Co., Inc., died Saturday (March 23, 1968) in Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, after a prolonged illness. He was 73. Mr. Hallagan was born in Utica Oct. 11, 1894, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon E. Hallagan. He was graduated from Canastota High School, Lawrence Academy and attended Dartmouth College. Mr. Hallagan served in World War I as a lieutenant in the United States Naval Air Force and was stationed in France and England. He joined the Bloomer Bros. Co. in 1926 as chairman of the board and treasurer when the co-founders, R. A. S. and C. T. Bloomer, retired from active participation in the carton box making firm on Norton St. Mr. Hallagan retired from the Bloomer Bros. Co. in 1960. He had been affiliated with the Hallagan firm, makers of upholstered furniture, for 53 years. The Hallagan firm was founded in Utica in 1900 by the late Simon Hallagan and was moved to Newark in 1913.

STUART D. HALLAGAN, Mr. Hallagan was an active member of the Newark Chamber of Commerce.

MAJOR PROJECT — An interested spectator watches construction workers build foundations for bridge on new Route 88 project to Sodus, just north of here.

Hospital Records 60 New Citizens So Far in March

The nurses in the maternity ward at the Newark-Wayne Community Hospital have been "working like 60" in the past weeks. Sixty babies have been born at the hospital since the first of the month which still has four days left to add to the population figures. The staff recorded 28 births in the last week and in one day alone there were eight new arrivals.

Inside Your C-G

Table with 2 columns: Category and Page Number. Includes Annals (3B), Births (2), Churches (3, 5, 10), Deaths (4), Dining (9B), Directory (5B), Editorials (3E), Marions (4B), Sports (6B, 7B), Theaters (9B), Want Ads (9B).

(Continued on Page 10)

(Continued on Page 4)