

Ambulance Fund Soars to $9,980-- Still Growing

Twenty-four ambulances have been received by the Town Ambulance Fund to bring the current total to $9,980.35. It was announced by Duane McCue, fund chairman.

The fund committee is confident that the total of $12,000 will be attained in that there are many more units still to be reported as well as many verbal reports of donations to come in. McCue said that only cash in the bank is included in the above figure.

It was also revealed that there has been only a limited list of business and professional people contacted, but many unsolicited donations have been made and are greatly appreciated. Contributions may be made to Duane McCue at the downtown office of Lincoln Rochester Trust Co. Checks should be made out to the Town of Arcadia, For Ambulance Fund. Donations are tax deductible.

Since last week's report in the Courier-Gazette the ambulance fund has been boosted by donations from the following community supporters: Garrett P. Smith, R. G. Hannan, Robert G. Bynnton, Finewood's Western Auto, Wilson C. Bloomer, Ely & Lewis, Inc., V.F.W. Arcadia Memorial, No. 2883, Welfare Fund, Dr. Frank R. Henne, Harold J. Stiles, Charles E. Stott, The Paris Women's Wear, Inc., Francis V. & Irene Leahy, Newark Stationery, Loblaws, Newark Courier-Gazette, Inc., S. Edwin Hallacian, Charles Hallacian, Marnuette Schuttner, VanHorn Grocery, Spinco Metal Products, Inc., Raymond L. Wilson, Brekens Poultry, Frederick W. Winkler, Lincoln Rochester Trust Co.

NEW AMBULANCE--The $13,000 Town of Arcadia ambulance, just $3,000 short of being paid for by popular subscriptions, will be seen in Saturday's Rose Festival parade. Radio equipment has just arrived for ambulance.

Newark Musical Group to Play At GOP Picnic

In keeping with the theme of blending new ideas with old tradition, area youth will entertain at the annual Wayne County Republican picnic at P. D. Park in Putneyville on July 27.

Of local interest will be the appearance of the Trio Juno Brass, a group of Newark High School students who have been in demand since their mutual public appearance last fall.

Playing Herb Alpert style and led by Greg Cooper, the group is composed of Bruce Radl, Rick Houston, Jerry Hubbard, Dave Owen, Dan Bement, Tim Hubbard and Terri Fischette.

Another Newark contribution to the program will be folk singing by Denise Fischette and Laurel Kaufman.

Scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m., the entertainment and amusements will also include barbershop quartets, games, exhibits, tableaux and a white elephant sale.

The entertainment will be followed by the traditional picnic dinner and a display of fireworks.
