

35,000 Spectators View Revival of Newark Rose Festival Parade Saturday

GRAND WINNER — "The Jackson & Perkins Co." won "best of parade" honors with its "Royal Canadian" float which carried Liz Kelly, 1967 Rose Queen.

FREE WHEELING — Boys ride their decorated bicycles in parade which got off on time at 2 p.m. and ended nearly 90 minutes later.

BIG SOUND — "The Wide, Wide World of Sound," entered by Bilotta Enterprises, received first prize as the best commercial entry.

STILL WINNING — The "most unusual" entry in parade was the "Old Woman and her Years of Roses" by the Co-op Nursery of Williamson. Float was grand prize winner in recent Williamson Apple Blossom Festival.

"FRIENDSHIP" — The Newark Rotary Club's float, "Friendship", won first prize as best fraternal or organization entry in colorful parade.

BEST FIFERS — The Palmyra Life and Drum Corps, a favorite in street parades, won first prize as the best life and drum corps in summer spectacle.

SOUTH SEAS — Tractor-drawn float, "South Seas", stopped long enough at Miller Main intersection for cameraman to get picture against backdrop of spectators.

A WINNER — "American Beauty", entered by Downtown Newark Merchants, received first prize as best float to carry out theme or name of a particular rose.

MATTERHORN — The Royal Court of Matterhorn was one of several floats entered in the festival parade which attracted 35,000 spectators.

CIRCUS CLOWNS — The North Main St. Neighborhood won first prize for best neighborhood float with its "Circus" entry—a big winner.

PRIZE WINNER — The Statesmen from the Newark State School won a third prize in the drum corps competition. Geneva's crack Appleknockers won first prize.

A GASSER — The Hopewell Firemen drey laughs all along the line of march with their famous "clown show". They participate in many area parades.

KIDDIES ON PARADE — Part of children competing in kiddies parade is shown swinging off Miller St. onto South Main St.
