Unaided. A face may be woe-ful-ly white to cover a heart that's breaking. And a face may be full of light over a heart that's breaking! The man that breaks for which we wear the willow! The tear, being slow relief which only wet the pillow. Hard may be burdensome, though friends contain nothing but the willow. Harder are crosses worn where some save God and find them.

TOPICS OF THE DAY. In hot weather there is no question as to the influence alcoholism has in the production of sunstroke. More than three-fourths of the patients admitted to the Bellevue hospital, New York, are under the influence of liquor.

single strong dose of lobelia, a herb which produces I am told, effects similar to those of henbane. The patient was first seized with a violent attack of vomiting; then a cold chill laid hold of his feet, and slowly mounted upwards spreading all over his body. He then moved, and struck his heart which ceased to beat, and his throat which ceased to breathe. They had sent for a doctor by this time.
