BIBLE RIDDLE 51

Warning wicked King
Abah
Of the famine all did dread,
I fled unto brook Cherith
Where the ravens brought me bread.
Who Am I?

Marriages

MILLER-BLUM
Wearing a lovely floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over tulle, Miss Vera Mildred Blum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blum of Liberty St., Arcade, became the bride of Mr. Miles A. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Miller of Rice Rd., Elma. The long sleeved lace bodice of her gown featured a ruffled, scalloped apron effect. Her finger tip veil of imported illusion fell from a leaf motif half-cap studded with matching iridescent sequins. She carried white orchids on a white Bible. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The candlelight ceremony took place at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in East Aurora Saturday, September 5, 1959 and the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Victor Neeb, pastor of the church. Bouquets of white gladiolus adorned the altar.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Helen Zielinski sang "O Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love" and following the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Miss Nancy Blum was her sister's maid of honor, dressed in a cotton blue silk dress fashioned in ballerina length. She carried a cascade bouquet of baby mums and shadowed carnations.

Miss Joyce Brockner, sister of the bridegroom, was dressed in a gown identical to that of the maid of honor and she, too, carried a cascade bouquet of baby mums and shadowed carnations.

Ronald Miller, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and the ushers were Dahl Blum, brother of the bride, head usher, Kenneth Blum, another brother, Kenrick Miller, and Frank Brockner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Corsages of white sweetheart roses were worn by the mothers of the couple. The bride's mother chose a sapphire blue dress with matching accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore an orchid lace dress with matching accessories.

A reception was held for 175 guests at the Roycroft Inn in East Aurora immediately following the ceremony.

After a trip to Canada, the couple are now at home in Elma.

Deaths

MRS. BASIL STAHLMAN
Mrs. Edith Burton Stahlman, age 38 years, wife of Basil Stahlman of Niagara Falls, N. Y. passed away at the Memorial Hospital at the Falls September 28, 1959, following a four-month illness.

Mrs. Stahlman was born in Ulysses, Pa., August 2, 1921 and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton of Delevan. She had lived at the Falls for 20 years.

Funeral services were held at the Lane Funeral Home at Niagara Falls Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. Lynn Smith, pastor of the Church of God officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Those left to mourn their loss are her husband, Basil, three sons, Basil Jr., 17, Bernard, 14, and Albert, 6, one brother, George of San Francisco, California, two sisters, Mrs. Ella Dewey of Eldred, Pa., Mrs. June Zimmer of Delevan, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton of Delevan. One sister, Mrs. Roberta Ehret preceded her in death in 1951.

MRS. MARGARET W. HOWARD
Arcade friends of Mrs. Margaret Welch Howard of Dearborn, Mich., were informed of her death on September 30, 1959. Death was caused from a heart attack on September 20.

As a girl she lived in Yorkshire, Eagle and Arcade. She married John Welch, Arcade, who was an editor of one of the Arcade papers. Mr. Welch died in 1921 and she sold the printing business to Grant Hodge and sold her home on Park Street and went to Detroit, Michigan, where she met and married Forrest Howard. She leaves to mourn her passing her husband and two daughters, Beverly, and Beryl, a son having died in infancy.
