Buffalo Raceway Moves Into 2nd Half of Fall Meet

This week Buffalo Raceway moved into the second half of its Fall meeting which will be concluded on October 31. Bud Gilmour continues to lead the other drivers in dash winnings, followed by Del Mangos and Keith Waples who are staging a seesaw battle for runnerup position. Post position 1 has produced the most winners to date and Daily Double number 56 has been the only combination of digits to repeat.

Never before in the history of Buffalo Raceway has there been such a fine array of 3-year-olds stabled there. Accordingly, Race Secretary Paul F. Keim has extended invitations to the pacing sophomore for a $1000 event on Thursday, October 8. This is the first special race for that age and gait this season, outside the Reynolds Stake

The Fall Trotting Series consisting of 5 events each worth $5000 added money will resume on Friday, the 9th, after an interruption last week for an invitational. Annette Sue, the newcomer from Roosevelt Raceway which trotted off with the first prize in her debut at Hamburg will start as the probable favorite in the third leg of the series. This 5-year-old mare owned and driven by Charlie King of Hamilton, Ohio, trotted the fastest mile on that gait this meeting, 2.04. Jessie Colby, Helen Brooke K., Bengazi, Empress Rodney, Rexall Boy, and Guy K. Protector are also eligible to Friday's feature

The Fall Pacing Series, after a break last Saturday for the H.T.A. Pace, will continue with the third leg valued over $5000 on this coming Saturday night. Tar Boy, which has wrapped up both previous versions of this 5-event series, and Mighty Dudley, the Canadian champion, will probably be absent to participate in the $50,000 H.T.A. finale at Roosevelt.

With this fearful pair away for this single even Berrymite, Munger Hanover, Highland Laird, Andy Byrd, Howard Roscroft and B'Haven will have a golden opportunity to seize a victory in this late closing feature.

Post time for the first race is 8:30, Daily Double windows close at 8:15.

More Area Dealers Showing Their New 1960 Model Automobiles

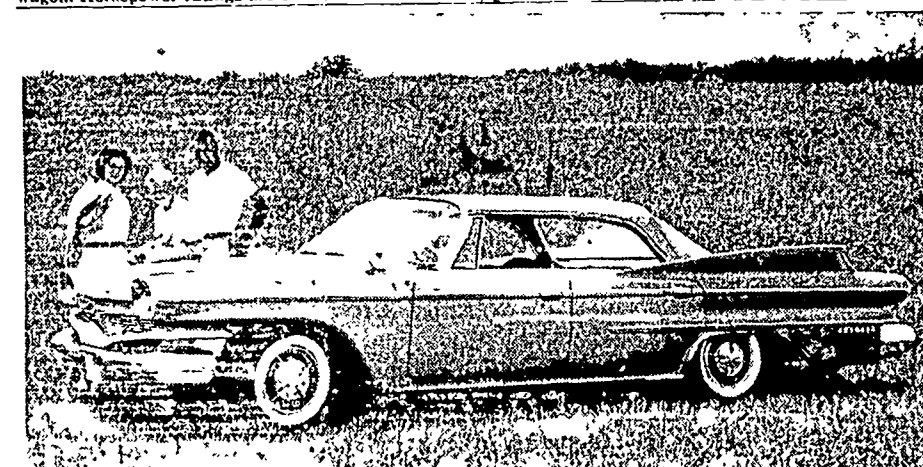

A strong family resemblance between the new Corvair and Chevrolet's conventional line of passenger cars for 1960 is evident in this unusual profile view. At 180 inches, however, the Corvair is more than two and one-half feet shorter, while its 108-inch wheelbase compares with 119 on the Impala Sport Sedan with which it appears.

Elegance and chassis refinements characterize the larger Chevrolets in an offering of 16 passenger models. The Corvair introduces an array of compact mechanical innovations designed to provide the riding and driving qualities demanded by the American buyer. The Corvair and conventional model will be in dealer showrooms Oct. 2.

Crisply sculptured lines which blend with each other to provide an overall "package" design highlight the Rambletop line for 1960, which goes on sale October 14. An addition to the line is a new three-seat station wagon. Horsepower ratings are 127 for the Six and 200 for the Rebel V-8. Optional power packs are available. The newly designed interiors provide five-foot-wide seats for six passengers. The 1960 models have larger windows and increased entrance room. Shown is the Rambletop Six Custom four-door sedan.

DETROIT, OCT. 1—The fresh vibrant look of tomorrow is achieved in the 1960 Dodge through new styling and advanced engineering. This Polara four-door hardtop is one of eleven models featuring natural seat heights and a new level of comfort and quiet.

Barbara Henry, Phillip Gunn Married At Ceremony In Franklinville

The marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Henry and Mrs. Phillip Gunn took place in a double ring ceremony held at the First Baptist Church in Franklinville Saturday afternoon, August 1, 1959 at 1:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Allen T. Short performed the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Henry and the late James Henry, Jr. and the son of Mrs. Mary Bray of Arcade before an altar decorated with fern, candelabra and bouquets of white gladioli and pink carnations. The organist, Donna Harris, accompanied Mr. Donald O'Neil of Rochester, who sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Henry, the bride wore a floor length gown of French lace and tulle over satin with long sleeves, fitted basque bodice and a sabrina neckline etched in sequins. The bouffant skirt with a chapel train was worn over hoops. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara set with rhinestones and pearls and she wore a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts of the bridegroom. Her white orchid corsage was carried on a white Bible with lilies of the valley and a ribbon shower.

Mrs. Richard Land of Olean, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a waltz length gown of mint green nylon sheer. The bodice was fashioned with a pleated v-neckline and large white venise motifs extended diagonally down the full skirt which was worn over ballerina hoops. Her headpiece was a dior box with a small circular veil and she wore white gloves.

Mary Ottaway of Franklinville, Sandra Secrist of Buffalo and Janice Wood of Little Valley were bridesmaids wearing ensembles identical to that of the matron of honor. The bridal attendants wore teardrop necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The flower girl was Marilyn Wneek of Kenmore, wearing a mint green dress styled like those of the bridal attendants.

Mrs. Richard White of Arcade was best man and the ushers were Donald Hiatt, Peter Walter and Steve Hud-on a cousin of the bridegroom. David Paul Bray of Arcade, brother of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of champagne lace over taffeta with champagne accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose coral silk organza over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and white carnations. Mrs. Frank Dallas, grandmother of the bride, was present and wore a corsage of pink roses Mrs. Fred Baker of Arcade, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a corsage of yellow roses and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall for 175 guests from Bradford and Erie, Pa., Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Olean, Arcade, Little Valley, and the Franklinville area. Sandra Nourse of Delevan was the guest list attendant.

Following a honeymoon trip to the Thousand Islands, Lake Placid and Lake George, the young couple are at home at 143 Franklin Street in Springville.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Ten Broeck Academy and is employed as a secretary at Burrell Products, Inc. The bridegroom is a graduate of Arcade Central School, Class of 1955, and received his degree in 1959 from the School of Pharmacy at the University of Buffalo.

Pre-nuptials events in honor of the bride included a variety show given by Mary Ottaway, Dessie Frost, Linda Hitchcock and Donna Beach, and a linen shower given by Mrs. Carol Hiatt and Mrs. Ethel Randall.
