Audrey Marie Banning Takes Wedding Vows In Gown Of Nylon

Miss Audrey Marie Banning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Crabb of Smith St., Delevan, and Mr. Kitchener Earl Reidel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Reidel, Sr. of Matteson Corners Rd., Holland, were united in marriage at St. Jude's Church in Sardinia at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning, September 19, 1959. The Rev. Carl Hill officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Harold Crabb of Arcade, wore a floor length gown of white sheer embroidered nylon fashioned with a tiered skirt, cape sleeves and a sabbina neckline. Her elbow length veil of French illusion was caught to a headpiece of white horsehair. She carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and white rosebuds entwined with blue forget-me-nots and stephanotis.

Miss Susan Hutchinson of Buffalo was maid of honor. Her floor length gown of blue nylon dotted swiss over blue satin was fashioned with a satin cummerbund tied in the back in a butterfly fashion. Her white circular veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white pompons.

Miss Jessie Reidel, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl, scattering rose petals as she preceded the bride to the altar. She wore a pale pink silk dress and a crown of pink horsehair.

Mr. Phillip Reidel acted as best man for his brother and Mr. Allen Reidel, another brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. James J. Crabb, brother of the bride, were ushers. Elliott Reidel, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer, carrying the rings for the bride and groom on a white satin pillow.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Crabb chose a two-piece sheath dress of ice blue linen. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses and white pompons.

The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a two-piece rayon sheath dress and her corsage was also of pink sweetheart roses and white pompons.

Mrs. Pearl Gear, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a red and black silk print dress and a corsage fashioned with white carnations and yellow pompons.

Following the wedding a reception for 150 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reidel, Sr.

For traveling the bride chose a light blue corduroy suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and "heart" carnations.

After a two-week honeymoon touring the states, the couple are now living at 502 Grover Rd., East Aurora.

Prior to the wedding a shower was held in Delevan in honor of the bride.

"Dead Or Alive?" To Be Sermon In Chaffee Church

At the 10:00 a. m. worship service in the Chaffee Baptist Church on Sunday, the Rev. John R.
