

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE OFF TO A FLYING START

Now the number two debate between Vice President Nixon and Senator John Kennedy is history. This oratorical clash took place last Friday night and we sincerely hope that you took time from your busy schedule to listen to the two candidates from whom you must make your choice for the office of President of the United States. There are two more to come and if you have missed the first two, by all means be sure to hear the next two. The dates of these will be announced in the metropolitan papers which are coming into our area daily. To those of you who witnessed this last word battle, I think that you will well agree that Vice President Nixon furthered his stand as the man we need in Washington for the next four years. We will be the first to admit that all has not been perfect under the Republican leadership, and with the Communistic nations trying desperately to undermine the free thinking countries, there is always room to wonder if this or that decision is right. But once again our history has proven in the United Nations that we are the leaders in the Assembly and still have the support of most of the delegates. Even Cuba, led by the Castro faction, just got around to vote as Russia had in the latest vote. So, don't believe for one minute that we have lost our prestige in the world!

Another point that Mr. Nixon made and with which we agree wholeheartedly is the factor that his opponent is continually running down the United States in his speeches. Why not point out some of the good things that have been accomplished during the past years? Let's not forget for one minute that while we have had a Republican President and Vice President, Congress has been controlled by Democrats for the past eight years. (History also shows us that a presidential veto can be overridden, too! Not least, Nixon pointed out that regardless of party affiliations, we must think wisely before casting our ballots. He pointed out in his last remarks that it is still the man that you vote for, not the party. Be sure to register this weekend if you are not registered and by all means vote on Tuesday, November 3.

One of the easiest things to do, be it on village, town, state or national levels, is to criticize the present government. Everyone is guilty of that, but how many can constructively criticize it? Or can you just criticize or express these things? Is this a solution? Personally we'd much rather hear something that can be done rather than something that can't be done.

One thing that is continually coming up during the campaign speeches is the question of federal aid to our schools. We can't emphasize too much the point and, regardless of your political thinking, we believe you should give this matter your undivided attention. Who is going to pay the federal government so it can give aid to the schools? And how much of the dollar you pay for this aid will come back to the school district which you live in? 10c maybe? It makes more sense to us that if we pay more taxes for our schools then let's pay it in our own local districts. Certainly we don't want to pay for schools for the south with our tax dollars! Think this over seriously and let those seeking office know how you feel about it!

Does Senator John F. Kennedy really believe in his campaign theme of American weakness and fertility? And if he does believe this, would he please make it clear what he would do to correct this alleged weakness and lethargy? How would he override Congress with his faintly outlined scheme for overseas aid, Federal help for schools, unproved military projects, etc., etc?

What red-blooded American will concede that his country is weak, that ours is a backward nation? If we are so backward, just how can we nearly the entire free world look to us for guidance and financial assistance to keep the world free and progressive? But if Americans are frightened by the Kennedy line, if they come to believe that by a strong President can save them, will they turn to Kennedy? Or will they turn to Nixon as a fighter and a strong man who is experienced in government and world affairs? Is Kennedy trying, as some think, to panic our nation? And what can possibly be his reason? Can he think that he is doing a service to his country by belittling it for all the world to hear? Does he not know that his every speech on the weakness of the United States is being noted and that any country on any continent may truly believe that a member of the United States Senate has to say about his own country?

Personally, we decline to be scared. And we decline to vote for Mr. Kennedy.

We print below excerpts from some of the leading papers in the United States.

New York Daily News: "If Mr. Kennedy's fellow Democrats won't unite behind him when it is to their vital election-year interest to do so, isn't it logical to expect a President Kennedy to be in constant conflict with Congress no matter how strongly Democratic the new Congress might be? That's a question we think the voters had better ponder pretty carefully throughout the campaign."

Third Quarterly Meeting of Arcade Chamber Huge Success; Wives Feted; School Board, Rev. Riley Honored

More than 160 members and wives attended the third annual meeting of the Arcade Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, as the Chamber paid tribute to the School Board members and to the Rev. John R. Riley of Chaffee. The meeting was held in the Arcade Central School cafeteria and was under the direction of M. S. Tracy, a director of the Chamber.

Early in the program, the Rev. Riley was presented with a gift from the Chamber in recognition of his services to the area. Arcade was his first assignment as a member of the clergy and he is finishing up his work at the Chaffee Baptist Church, where he has served for the past several years. Much credit was given him for coaching baseball in Arcade, as well as being instrumental in the formation of the Arcade Men's Club. Rev. Riley in his remarks later reminded the gathering that with all the credit given him for these two things, he did have time to do some preaching at the Arcade Baptist Church. Rev. and Mrs. Riley will move to the Adirondack region, where they will enjoy their retirement.

President Robert Witter introduced the members of the school board who were present and each was presented with a token of appreciation by the Chamber. Also honored were school attorney Milford Newman and clerk C. R. Newman, Supervising principal Joseph Kemp was introduced and traced the school's progress from 1927, when the enrollment was a total of 447 students to the present enrollment of over 1800 pupils, 1527 of whom are in the public schools within the district. He also explained the needs when each addition was made to the present site, pointing out that with each addition it was considered adequate for the school enrollment.

At the time. With the need of more room, he urged all present as well as all voters within the district to give the board their full cooperation and counsel, so that wise planning with an overall planning goal be accomplished at this time. The board is presently working along these lines. Citizens' committees will be established to give them the help they need. Mr. Kemp also noted that in 1927, 1939 and 1950 when a need presented itself the voters rallied to the aid of the board and that they were confident the same would happen when this problem presented itself again in the very near future.

A brief business meeting was conducted by the officers and members. President Anson F. Sherman gave his report, touching briefly on the progress of each of the many committees that are now working. Robert Duguid, membership chairman, gave a report and introduced the members newly added to the Chamber since its last quarterly meeting. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Ladika, Edward Haines, assistant manager of the local GLE and Mrs. Hainey and Robert Witter, now associated with Larry Romance, were among the new members and wives introduced.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Tracy for the social part of this gathering. William Borecanaz presided over the meeting and the committee took this opportunity to present Mrs. Ethel Tullar and thank her for her part in serving the dinner. She was presented following questioning by members present and no one was able to identify her. Several gifts from the merchants were presented to Mrs. Tullar when no one could identify her.

Hope Lutheran Church—The Church of the Lutheran Hour—Holds First Arcade Service

Hope Lutheran Church, newly formed church for the Arcade-Yorkshire-Delevan area, held its first regular Sunday service on October 2 at the Crystal Hose Fire Company hall in Yorkshire.

One hundred and forty people attended the 9:00 A. M. Church Service. Attendance at Sunday School and Bible Classes at 10:15 A. M. was 71.

Rev. William A. Drews, Executive-Secretary of the Eastern-District Missouri Synod Lutheran Church held the service. Rev. Drews also dedicated the altar, baptismal font, pulpit, lectern, cross and candleholders.

An electric organ, obtained on approval by the organ committee, was played by Mrs. Arlene Bray, organist from Sandusky.

After services, the Rev. Drews introduced Harry Kuhlow of Eden, lay missionary worker of this District, who made the initial survey necessary to determine if there was need for a Lutheran Church in this area. Mr. Kuhlow expressed his great happiness that he and Mrs. Kuhlow could be present on this wonderful occasion and asked for God's blessing on the congregation in all its endeavors.

Next, the temporary officers of Hope Lutheran Church were introduced. These officers are: President, Lester Lehning, of Chaffee, who will be assisted by his committee composed of Edward Mattson of Sandusky and William Broskett of Arcade; Sunday School Superintendent, William Winkey of Springfield; Recording Secretary, Mrs. LaVerne Deahn of Arcade; Treasurer, Nelson Tinch of Freedom.

After the introductions, pictures of the congregation were taken by Roger Gorham of Graham Studios in Arcade, both inside and outside the building. These pictures will be available for purchase from the church. One of them, above, shows the congregation outside of the church.

Ten Sunday School teachers then gathered their respective classes together and held classes for 71 children and adults.

Mr. Kuhlow, under the Mission Board's direction, had made possible the first meeting of those interested in establishing a Lutheran Church in this area. This meeting was held August 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Broskett in Arcade. Both Mr. Kuhlow and the Rev. Drews were present.

It was explained that Rev. Victor H. Neeb of Immanuel in East (Continued on page 5)
