

HOUSE OF HAZARDS

By Mac Arthur

FILM TELLS THRILL TALE OF OLD N. W.

Bringing to the screen Kenneth Roberts' adventure novel which was the largest selling book in the nation month after month, "Northwest Passage" opens at the Capitol Theatre Sunday with Spencer Tracy starred and Robert Young and Walter Brennan in leading featured roles.

Many months before actual character animation began on "Pinocchio," the Disney department created a marionette which looked exactly like Pinocchio now looks in the picture. One of the members of the department, adept at working puppets, spent many hours in making the little wooden Pinocchio go through his paces.

HEARTS WALKING

BY MRS. HARRY PUGH SMITH

Plans Made For Shift to New School

Janet Phillips has no ear of her own or well-to-do father, like her friends in Bay City. But now that her crowd has finished high school and been away at finishing school or college, Janet finds that she is left out of much of their society.

She was making one more attempt to put her ball into the cup. "You really mean you don't like me, don't you?" Jim's eyes were fascinated by her rounded throat where she had turned her collar in. "Yes," he said a little hoarsely.

May Shelton uttered, "Don't tell me you have scruples like Berenice's Bill." "It's partly that," admitted Janet with a shrug, "and partly that I have more expensive habits now than I can afford."

Shifting from the present school to the new Junior-Senior High School next fall will be just as easy as changing into new clothes for Newark pupils under orientation plans being carried out under direction of Principal Arthur E. Nash.

Chapter 2 She smiled again and Jim smiled back. He could not have told of which he was fonder, the Judge, or the Judge's gentle dark-haired daughter.

from New York, but Ruth Hetchcote was a thoroughbred. Nothing of her unhappiness was in her even voice.

with the ball, although she topped it and it weakly trickled less than thirty feet from the tee.

It was pure coincidence that she happened to be passing the smart apartment building in which her sister had been living for a year and a half.

Marlene Dietrich, Stewart Feature Film Hit of West A new Marlene Dietrich, vastly improved and bearing little resemblance to her previous appearances except in glamorous beauty, returns to the screen Sunday when Universal's "Destry Rides Again" opens at the Strand Theatre.

Following the novel which first ran in the Saturday Evening Post before becoming a best-seller, the picture tells the story of a courageous, hardy band of Rogers Rangers who in 1758 set forth on a secret mission to wipe out a village of marauding Indians.

'Pinocchio' Slated At Geneva Schine Beginning Today By the time the artists were ready to start drawing the character "Pinocchio," the marionette hero of Walt Disney's second full-length feature production, they were almost able to qualify as full-fledged puppeteers.

Howard frowned and again started to speak only to be forestalled for the second time by his companion. "I've never had a driver in my hand, but if Howard's as good as he says he is, we should be able to interest you two," she remarked.

Ruth drove first and it was a pleasure to see her ball wing straight down the fairway.
