Impressive Ceremony Marks Muth - Van Duser Nuptials

Newark—In a lovely summer ceremony last week Thursday, June 27, 1940, at 4 p. m. in the Methodist Church, Miss Ellen Van Duser, daughter of Mrs. Orville Barker Van Duser of 124 Church St., Newark, and Raymond A. Muth, of 109 Prospect St., Newark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Muth of 109 Prospect St., Newark, were united in marriage. The Rev. Willis R. Sanderson, pastor of the Park Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, mock orange blossoms, and gladioli.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Norris Van Duser, of Sodus, was lovely in her mother's wedding dress, 35 years old, of ivory silk chiffon cloth trimmed with real Spanish lace. Her long veil was caught by orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses.
Mrs. Norris Van Duser of Sodus, sister-in-law to the bride, and matron of honor, was gowned in powder blue silk marquisette with a matching hat. Miss Margaret Van Duser of Media, Pa., and Mrs. Frank W. Higgins of Olean, N. Y., cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in pink silk marquisette with matching hats. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink roses and blue delphinium.
William Meier of Rochester, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Damon E. Van Duser of Newark, brother of the bride, and John Peirson of Mercersburg, Pa., Robert Purchase of Colton Ave., Newark, and Ronald Welcher of Newark.
The mother of the bride was gowned in white eyelet silk with black and white accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom wore powder blue silk with lace trim, dark blue accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias.
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Wolfs' for the bridal party and near relatives.
Out-of-town guests present at the ceremony were from Rochester, Syracuse, Olean, Sodus, Media, Pa., Beacon, N. Y., Fayetteville, N. Y., Chaumont, N. Y., Taunton, Mass., Williamson, N. Y., and Mercersburg, Pa.
The young couple left on a boat trip up the Great Lakes. They will be at home after July 15th at 402 East Avenue, Newark.
The bride is a graduate of Newark High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Newark High School and attended the University of Pennsylvania.
Pre-nuptial functions included a shower given by Mrs. Miss Patty Constock; a gadget shower by Miss Eleanor Christy and Miss Eleanor Davis at the Newark Country Club; a dinner by Mrs. W. T. Purchase; a kitchen shower by Mrs. Ronald Welcher and Mrs. Gordon Parker; a dessert-bridal and bathroom shower by Mrs. Donald R. Bird at the Wolfs; a surprise shower by the Kaufmans; a luncheon and crystal shower at the Wolfs by Miss Juliette Lucas; a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Ernest Smith and the primary teachers of the Methodist Church; a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Norris of Sodus; a bachelor party for the

de Zaira—Michelsen
Newark—Miss Dorothea S. Michelsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Michelsen of Newark, and Carlos de Zaira, Jr., of Rochester, son of Mrs. Mary M. de Zaira, of Rochester, were united in marriage, in Albany, on Saturday afternoon, June 22, 1940, by Justice of the Peace, George W. Casey.
The bride was gowned in Alice blue frosted crepe trimmed with dubonnet, with a matching turban with dubonnet veil, and she wore a corsage of orchids.
Mrs. Frank C. Foiderman of Albany, who was Miss Cora A. Fulver of Newark before her marriage, and girlhood friend of the bride, was matron of honor. She chose a gown of navy blue sheer trimmed with white, white accessories, and a corsage of talisman roses.
John W. Herring, of Slingerlands, N. Y., New York State Supervisor of Adult Education, and a mutual friend of the bride and bridegroom, was best man.
Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. Herring for the bridal party.
The couple left on a motor trip through the New England States, and are now honeymooning at Sebasco Lodge on the Maine Coast. Upon their return they will make their home at 136 Electric Avenue, Rochester.

The bride is a graduate of Newark High School and the University of Rochester, where she received her B.A. and M.A. degrees. She is now teaching at John Marshall High School, Rochester, N. Y. The bridegroom is a graduate of New York University, where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees. He is now teaching at Batavia High School, Batavia, N. Y.
