The Democrats have decided upon Rowell P. as their State Flower.

The Seneca won the ball game over the Grays at Watertown on Saturday, 6 to 5.

Everybody is glad to see that the sidewalk in front of the Partridge block is being finished.

The lecture by Sam Small has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the illness of his wife.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold their annual picnic at Cayuga Lake park next Tuesday.

Rev. Father O'Connor has given St. Patrick's church their vacation during the months of July and August.

The hot wave held over Monday, and it seemed at times as if we were inmates of a big oven, heated for business.

Just think of it, 526 pounds the weight of two persons who will run a foot race at Oswego next Thursday.

Strawberries have given place to raspberries, of which there seems to be an abundant supply of good quality.

The Republican caucus for Waterloo has been called for to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Academy of Music.

Everybody is invited on that moonlight excursion for Friday night, on "lovely Cayuga." Round trip tickets, only 25 cents.

The rain of yesterday was needed and welcome. It revived vegetation and relieved the oppressive oppressiveness of the atmosphere.

On July 31 occurs the sale of the National Vest Company plant and property by the Receiver, W. F. Seymour, at the factory, at 11 A. M.

The local in last night's Bulletin says that the caucus of last night was a small and tame affair. It was more like a rum-tum than anything else.

The July 31 Bulletin has a rich abundance of the short and bright articles which are so fond of reading, there being thirty items in the table of contents.

If there is anything seditious like it is prompt paying patrons, and we place the Miles Medical Co. on the "Roll of Honor," because they send their money when it is due.

The middle of the day, on Sunday last, was excessively warm. At evening it was delightful, and nearly everybody seemed to be enjoying a quiet siesta on their piazzas or shady lawns.

Next month the Cosmopolitan promises to print the opening chapters of a short novel by Amelia Edw. Hays, which she entitled "According to St. John" and which is said to be the best work from her pen.

The result of the vote for State flower, as finally declared by the state superintendent, is in favor of the rose by a majority of 88,111 to a total vote of 501,218. That suits us; hurrah, for the Rose!

The July number of the Home Magazine, which is edited by Mrs. John A. Logan, contains a very interesting article on "Wellesley College," and is illustrated by a fine photograph of the college from the lake.

Seneca County has just been added to "Trigs, Tompkins and Schuyler" in the re-organization of internal revenue districts. Several changes were made the first of this month, and the number of collectors was reduced.

The summer meeting at the Kirkwood Driving Park, Seneca Falls, takes place July 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1891. There are 150 entries and $5,000 in prizes. Anyone desiring further information can see large bills at JOURNAL OFFICE.

That Tyre camp caucus worked well, and caught the practical snobs in their own trap. They set a head fish proved a poor investment for them, but served a good purpose by more emphatically advertising their well known "ascendancy."

Remember the moonlight excursion up Cayuga lake next Friday night, leaving the Franklin House at 7:30 P. M. Train starting from town at East Verbank and Aurora. Fare for round trip, 35 cents. All are invited. Tickets for sale at Waynes.

At the Republican town caucus for Seneca Falls, held on Monday evening at Union hall, but one ticket was presented and but little interest manifested. The following were chosen delegates to the County convention: John F. Crosby, Samuel Gould, George Raymond, John Atholney, Joseph McGrain.

We are rejoicing, (that is, all but the poor bicyclists,) over new walks on the west side of State street, in front of the premises of Messrs. Algine, Mague, Wentworth and Anderson. Material is also on hand for a plank walk before the old Clapp place. This consummation has long been devoutly wished.

We publish this week the call for the Republican County Convention to be held at Romulus on Saturday, August 1, at noon. Nineteen delegates, including representatives to the convention of Republican Clubs at Syracuse, are to be chosen, and the county convention is of considerable importance.

It may be interesting to some of our readers to know the fastest time ever made on a bicycle. The world's record for one mile, pneumatic tires safety, is now held by W. C. Jones made on Paddington track, England, in 2:20 3/5. The same American record is held by W. F. Murphy, New York City, 2:26 1/5, made in competition on Charter Oak track, Hartford, Conn., July 13, 1887.

Saturday proved a capital day for the outing and gala day of the I. M. Union at Cayuga Lake Park, and it was enjoyed accordingly by the large and social crowd in attendance. The lively processionary march, led by the cornet band aroused and enraptured the whole town, and many of our citizens arranged to spend part of the day at least, at the Park, and enjoy the entertainment furnished.

That Tyre caucus was a slummer for the practical conspirators. It only required a few hours hard work by honest and reliable men to expose the plot, upset the whole diabolical plan, and capture the thieving gang by driving them into their own net. They stand exposed upon the confession of their own would-be dupes, without so much as a shadow of justification for their attempted steal.

At the Tyre Republican caucus last Saturday night, the following were chosen delegates to the County convention: Lincoln C. Johnson, T. T. Munson, James E. English, O. W. Marsh, Henry Cross, their votes being 61 to 11 for Emory Story, George Sumner, William Bradley, George Wall and Nelson H. Seckol, opposing candidates on what was known as the Morgan, Andrews, or "conspiracy" ticket.

The cool weather for a portion of last week, especially at night, was rather discouraging for the growing corn, and it made very little progress. There is time yet for most of it to catch up, but the yield must be inferior in many fields. Much hay has been cut and stored in the last ten days, and the average was better than had been anticipated, in yield and quality. We hope it may prove so with all the farmers' crops.

As to meeting a bicycle, a cyclist gives this advice to pedestrians: "The thing to do is to pay no attention to the bicycle—to pass right on and the wheelman will see that no one is hurt. When a bicycle attempts to pass, it is specially desirable to have people walk on and not pay any attention. If they do this no one will be hurt."—Middie (Ill.) Dispatch.

The time has arrived for the intelligent press of the State of New York to take a decided stand against capital punishment.—Herald Express.

That has been one stand from the beginning, and we see nothing in recent developments to cause any change of sentiment or position. Choking or choking human beings to death though it be by legal enactment, is worthy only of barbaric ages and people.

It seems that the dead fish nuisance has not been confined to Cayuga Lake. In fact, it has been a large percent, worse on the shores of Ontario, and is worse this year than usual. It will hardly do to charge it all to the billhead increase and starvation, or the recent fish laws. Old fishermen say that very sudden and severe thunder storms, or other sudden atmospheric and electrical changes, are the cause of extra mortality among fish.

"That's a show worth seeing," was what a string of people remarked, and what we thought, as we fell in with the crowd that centered in Hanna's store on State street about nine o'clock last Friday evening. There, straggling along the floor in the centre of the room, were spread thirty-three splendid fish, all alike but one. They were the catch during that day of Messrs. Seckol, Hanna and Conter, and made one of the finest strings ever shown up here, as everybody agreed. Who wants to go there every year better? We shall be glad to report any improvement.

General Butler's forthcoming book will be one of the largest and most interesting autobiographies ever published. It will contain one thousand large pages, printed upon high grade paper and illustrated with several hundred wood engravings. It will be published in English, German, and French. The best artists are now employed on the work. The Dickinson Type Foundry is casting type especially for it. The typography and press-work will be by the Ranta Press of Boston, the first edition to be not less than one hundred thousand, probably double that number. The publishers are A. M. Thayer & Co., of Boston.

The Waterloo local on Saturday night's Syracuse Herald reported—the first Republican caucus of the season in this vicinity will be held for the town of Fayette at the Franklin House in South Waterloo on Tuesday, to nominate delegates to the county and Senatorial conventions. Oh, no; the Seneca Falls caucus had been fixed for Monday evening before, but notice was withdrawn from the JOURNAL, and only appeared in the practical organ, which accounts for the news not having reached so far as Waterloo on Saturday afternoon. The snap worked well, and those who worked it have furnished another proof of their "harmonious" intent. They doubtless had a sufficiently harmonious caucus. But Republicans at large have an eye on the course of events, and will regulate the political machinery in the season.

Ask your druggist for Knight's Blood Cure, you can't afford to be without it; it is the best household medicine known. A large assortment of Hæmorrhoidal remedies at the Argyle Pharmacy.

There will be issued from the press during this month, a little pamphlet of thirty-two pages entitled "The Church and Poverty," by John Brisson Walker, Ph. D. This is the substance of a lecture delivered in Washington before the Catholic University of America. The Washington Star said at the time: "The lecture was in some respects a remarkable effort in the boldness with which he brought home to clergy and laymen their responsibility for many of the social difficulties that beset our civilization. No such plain speaking has been heard since a 13th century for similar circumstances, and for this reason as well as because of the food for thought to every one interested in the welfare and prosperity of his race and the government under which we live, an extended report of the lecture is given." Price 10 cents. For sale by local news dealers.

He must feel very tired; that ring committee-man who was so elated over the "sun-thing fixed for Tyre" that he couldn't wait for the returns, but gleefully proclaimed on Saturday night that Tyre had fallen into the hands of the Andrew-Monginists. If he has a gleam of manly sense left he probably wishes he hadn't been so anxious to exhibit his foreknowledge. He can guess nearer, now, who is "in it." This hiding nooses on the backside of county fairs, or the inside of obscure shod stores, isn't always a "sure thing." The strange feature about these corrupt schemes is, that men of ordinarily good repute will allow themselves to be bamboozled into helping to carry out such scandalous frauds. They ought to know better, and hereafter have not the excuse of ignorance to shield them, so far as the example in Tyre is concerned. And the same practical lesson may be drawn from the same desperate rule or "win would-be leaders," throughout the county. They hypocritically pretend about "harmonizing the party," to hoodwink the careless, while every step they take plainly discloses the cloven foot, and makes manifest to any careful observer, their one overweening purpose, as expressed on at least one portentous occasion by one of the leading corruptists, to "let the Republicans get to go to smash, if we cannot run it." But a time of retribution is coming for these graceless false pretenses and their hirelings.

Amid all the criticisms and charges of extravagant management and grab-games in the conduct of village affairs, when a public officer really accomplishes a good and economical work, he should have the credit of it, and we would be just as vitriolical in the same manner, if the man of Road and Bridge committee, Williams, reports the dry bridge job in Bridge street, for which $400 was appropriated, has been completed, and to everybody's satisfaction, with a surplus of about $70 on hand. That is a good showing, and it is a satisfaction to make a note of it. Mr. Williams also explained the status of the Seneca street embankment matter which has been the subject of criticism. It seems that in the estimate for the original work, the filling in after the stone work laid was not included, and the bill submitted showed that the extra proper would require at least $1,000, leaving a considerable sum necessary and unprovided for the other work; and as so much earth had been drawn out by overflows and debts, etc., it was determined to "cut the cost according to the cloth," and to contract, or lessen the proposed embankment from 66 feet, the old plan, to 10 or 12 feet, and use what might remain of the $1,000 in doing the necessary filling in, thus leaving the job completed and no shortage of funds. This last plan will furnish some 20 or more feet of embankment on the embankment, it was formerly but 16 feet, and leave the whole well banked and solid. We deem it proper and just to make this statement of the case, that readers may understand the situation, as furnished by the contracting parties themselves.

Mr. Edwin Medlen, who has been spending a couple of weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Hubert Dalton, in Cleveland, Ohio, returned home on Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter Mary, who has spent several months in Cleveland, and also by Mrs. Dalton, who will visit friends here.

It seems as if some shelling up was going on about town with special view to a good appearance on the 30th. That is as it should be, and shows a commendable pride. Many of our citizens are to have personal and particular friends to visit us on that day, and it is important that they carry away a good impression of the place and the people.

It is a well vouchered fact that the pirates who raided the Republican caucus at Tyre last Saturday night, promised a colored democrat $5 for his vote, and having secured it repudiated the deal. That is a hazardous way of managing even political crookedness, and brought home at least one course to roast on their guilty heads. But that was only one of their dark transactions.

The rotten low-lived, dishonest methods by which the Sweet faction attempted to run the Fayette caucus yesterday, when they saw they were out-numbered two to one, completely disgusted even some of their own followers. One of those remarked to the writer that such open, brazen and dishonest attempts to avoid a fair exposition of the merits of the candidates by a bribe of shame to the clerk of the caucus, would if he had one particle of honor, manhood, or common decency left in his make-up, has he? "Dime" McArthur, "Ben" Mongin and Fred Hild have never had an opportunity to lose any of these attributes of a good character for reasons which are understood and appreciated by all who thoroughly know them.

At the Argyle Pharmacy is the only place in town you can get a glass of Whippell Cream Soda.

Ice Cream in quantities at Esenman's. Advertisements in the JOURNAL.

That Fayette Caucus. The Fayette Republican town caucus was held yesterday at noon, and resulted in the following manner. The caucus called by the secretaries of both the last years caucuses, but one of them at least, was refused admission to the room this year, by Mr. Fred Hild, who "ran the machine," and refused to pay the least regard to the demands of the voters, against many of whom the door was unceremoniously locked, and a selected squad entered the chamber proceedings of the caucus on an extended business trip through the South.

Mr. B. H. Beck left last evening on an extended business trip through the South. Miss Belle Palmer left this morning to spend a week with friends in Rome, N. Y. Miss Genevieve Synette of Evansville, Ill., is visiting her friend, Miss Lulu Andrews.

Mr. Stephen Seard representing the New York Mail and Express, was in town yesterday. Mrs. Clarence Stever and children of Geneva are visiting at Mr. Fred Stever's on Bridge street.

Miss Mattie Bartlett leaves this morning for a visit of several weeks with friends in Nevada. Mrs. Elbert Crowell and family leave to-day for Rochester, where they are to reside for the present. Miss Rena Johnson and brother of Hamilton are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Col. Johnson on Cayuga street.

Mr. Dieter, proprietor of Cayuga Lake park, with his sister and son, arrived in town last Saturday evening. Mrs. Charles Ward left last evening for her home in Springfield, Ohio, called there by the illness of her daughter. Mr. Andrew Stevenson of Elmwood, Ind., is a guest at the residence of his brother, Al Stevenson on Clinton street.

Miss Julia Fox of Syracuse, who has been visiting at Dr. Covert's, returned to her home Monday afternoon. Miss Wilhelmina Eastman returned from Albion this morning. Her cousin, Miss Louise Burgess, accompanied her. Mr. W. S. Cady, D. D. S., of Fredonia, Kansas, a cousin of Dr. Stevenson, is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. Marshall Coving of Auburn has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. V. Van Brosscher on Fayard street. Mr. S. L. Phillips, as we are sorry to learn, is confined at the Towsey House in Waterloo, threatened with a fever.

Miss Virginia Stores of Utica, N. Y., niece of Gen. Daniel Butterfield, is visiting Miss Alfred P. Wessell on Clinton street. Mr. Will B. Young of New York, and Miss Josie Vail of Rochester, are visiting their cousin, Miss Sophia Reed, on Fall street.

Mrs. E. O. Conklast from Springport, Jackson county, Mich., is visiting at the residence of Henry F. Troutman, on State street. Mr. G. C. Kleiser and son and Mr. Cranton Phillips of Milwaukee, Wis., are spending the summer with Mr. Fred Marler, Sr.

Miss Alice Flanagan was an attendant at the dancing party given by the Franklin social club, at Penn Yan, on Wednesday evening last. Mr. George and Miss May Watkins left yesterday morning for a visit with friends and relatives on the Hudson, and in and about New York City.

Mr. Chas. A. Curtis and wife, and nephew, Frank Wilcoxon, returned Saturday from a pleasant visit with friends in the southern part of the state. Mrs. Lucy Baker, mother of Col. A. S. Baker and Mrs. J. H. MacDonald, is lying critically ill at the home of her daughter in Fall street. She is eighty-two years of age.

Mr. David Condit and sister Nellie, Misses Edson and Helen Gale, Misses Minnie Brown and Mr. Lewis Johnson, left yesterday morning to join a party of friends in a camp on Canandaigua lake, to be about two weeks.

Editor Stowell of the Herald with his wife and daughter, is in attendance at the National Editorial Convention at St. Paul, Minn. Barring ill health and accidents they are necessarily having a glorious time, and we stay-at-homes can at least heartily congratulate them.

Mr. Edwin Medlen, who has been spending a couple of weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Hubert Dalton, in Cleveland, Ohio, returned home on Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter Mary, who has spent several months in Cleveland, and also by Mrs. Dalton, who will visit friends here.
