

THE MCGRAWVILLE SENTINEL PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY. FAYETTE S. BERGGREN, FRED J. BERGGREN, Editors and Proprietors. Subscription Price: $1.00 per year in advance...

able ladies aided the mother and daughter. The poor girl could hardly partake of the delicacies sent her, but the gifts made her happy and she died blessing those who had tried to relieve her and her mother's misery.

EDITORS' EASY CHAIR. - Charles Burlingame of Willett, was in town last week. - Mrs. L. J. Higgins of Cazenovia, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Hendricks.

- School Books are very cheap at C. A. Jones'. - To rent - first floor of house. Enquire of M. D. Holden. - M. C. Bingham is selling four pairs of Ladies or Gents fine hose for twenty-five cents.

Mr. Ed. Oliver of Whitney's Point, was visiting in town over Sunday. An alarm of fire was sounded on Monday evening last at about 6:30 o'clock, as the Cortland house was thought to be on fire.

Tennyson's Poems, finely finished paper-rack, carpet-sweeper, carpet-stretcher, pictures already framed, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Sprague are very worthy of the host of friends which they have won and who give to them their hearty best wishes for a long, prosperous and happy life.

Cortland County Farmers Club. The attendance was good and considerable interest was shown in the subject for discussion, "Road making."

A REPETITION of the dreadful railroad accident of Republic, O., was narrowly escaped recently by the same numbered trains and the same time of day and at the same place. An east-bound freight train thundered past the depot when the limited express was almost due, and the operator stopped it only by hurling a large stone through the window of the caboose, awakening the conductor, who managed to stop the train and back on the siding just one minute before train No. 5 went past.

Powderly earns his $5,000 if he keeps the knights out of socialism. - Syracuse Standard. The talk of sending Roscoe Conkling back to the senate might as well stop. What is the use of wasting men of his caliber on the senate when in Illinois and everywhere else small boys are elected even more readily? - Chicago Times.

TERSE NOTES BY EXCHANGES. - We acknowledge a pass to the Albany senate chamber, sent us Tuesday, by Lieutenant-Governor Jones. - Charles Smith of Cincinnati, visited at his father's, Rev. A. C. Smith's, in this place the fore part of the week.

On Thursday evening last as Barton H. Rorark was crossing the Syracuse and Binghamton railroad track on the Elm street crossing, he was struck by the locomotive of the south bound passenger train and knocked several feet in the air. He was somewhat bruised, but was able to walk to his home near the fair grounds. His escape from instant death seems miraculous.

At a special communication of Cortlandville lodge, No. 470, F. and A. M., held at the lodge rooms January 20, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, the Supreme Grand Master in His infinite wisdom has again favored our outer door and summoned from his labors on earth our highly esteemed and beloved brother John Brown;

At the residence of Mr. Ed. Oliver of Whitney's Point, was a very pleasant affair occurred at the home of Mr. William Latimer, Sr., about four miles west of our village, in the town of Homer, on Thursday, January 20, at 2 P. M., it being the occasion of the marriage of his only daughter, Mary, to Mr. Eugene Sprague, of Cortland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. T. Sell. Upwards of sixty guests were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was had.

Club adjourned to meet again in two weeks, Saturday, Feb. 5, in Union Hall. The subject of "road-making" will be continued and "tax-payer" and those who signed the petition are requested to come in and give their views. The next subject to be taken up is "Duties of our farmers as citizens." Cortland, Saturday, Jan. 22. C. M. BEAN, Sec'y.
