

This committee served refreshments for a special occasion sponsored by Seneca Lodge AF&M at Masonic Temple, 115 Howard St. Brother Charles Brown was chairman. In photo are: DGM Willie Jones, DGM Gladys Chase, SGW Charles

Woodard, Sis. Louise Wright, GT Robert Harris, MGWM William R. Dames, PM Richard Easley, DDGM L. M. Craig, IGD Samuel Bligen, and PDDG Master, Charles W. Brown.

—Criterion Photo

Eugene H. Nickerson, Nassau County executive, recently announced his candidacy for Governor on the Democratic ticket. He has an enviable record as leader of Nassau County of 15 million people and promises the same if elected governor.

A birthday party was given recently by the Brotherhood of Church Clubs in honor of Bethel AME Church, a member of Bethel AME Church, on his 90th birthday at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 166 Goodell St. Seated, l-r, are: George W. Smith of Lincoln Memorial, V. Pres. Stephen Malcolm of St. Philip's, Treasurer, Fred L. Hernton, Durham Memorial AMEZ, William R. Hilliard, St. Luke AMEZ; Mr. Cayton, John Campbell, Pres., Lincoln Memorial; and Hubert Miller, of St. Philip's.

—Criterion Photo

Elder M. Roberts (3rd from right), pastor of Powerhouse Church of God in Christ, Fillmore at Glenwood, was host to a program dedicating a mimeograph machine for use by the diocese. The machine was donated by a kind-hearted busi-nesswoman of Tonawanda, N.Y. Elder Calvin Sherrill, center, was chairman. Among others shown are: Deacon Young, Rev. Mrs. Young, Rev. Peter Mann, Rev. Dockery.

—Criterion Photo

Leonard Nimoy, co-star of the top-rated CBS TV series, "Mission: Impossible," is one of the headlines on the spectacular Variety Club Telethon seen live and in color over WKBW-TV, Channel 7, from 10:50 p. m. Saturday February 28 through 4 p. m. Sunday, March 1. Proceeds will benefit the Children's Rehabilitation Foundation.

Another Disruption—Jim Brown, football star-turned-actor, has another inner-admeasurement that isn't taped or known to the general public. He's an avid chess player. On the set of MGM's "Tic... Tic... Tic..." filmed in Colusa, Calif., he challenged actor Dan Shroval during a break with assistant to the producer Cassius V. Weathbery, actor Rennie Reker and Columbian E. J. Sze looking on.

The Women's Auxiliary of the N.A.A.C.P. honored 12 charter members during a tea held at Trinity Baptist Church, Rev. S. L. Hargrove, pastor. The group was organized by the late Martha Miller in 1949. Among those shown are Mesdames Annette Baker, Pauline Bradley, Flora

Parker, Mary Chappelle, Travelline Lawson, Zona Cannon, Louise Moore, Nellie Gloaby, Earline Rainey, and Mary Tucker, president. Christine Reese represented Mary Grant who could not attend.

—Criterion Photo

Daisies tell a story of imaginative trimming; here appraised to a sleek sweater-skirt knit of Crestlan acrylic fiber. Gay colors, easy care and improved styling make sweatshirts top teen fashion item. Manufactured by Sale Knitting Mills in six colors, the garments are for wear by men and women.

This young ministers' group has been active in the community in religious work. They meet at Jordan Grove Baptist Church on Saturday evenings. Left to right, are Reverends: Tidwell, R. Hollaway, Glen DuBois, A. Williams, H. V. Reid, J. Upshaw; T. Caver, W. Weaver, H. Hall and S. Byrd.—Criterion Photo.

William Plummer, second from left, brilliant end for the Florida A & M University Bulldogs was presented the sixth annual $1,500 Willie Gallimore Memorial Scholarship Award by Pepsi-Cola Co. during pre-game ceremonies at the 37th renewal of the Orange Blossom Classic played between FAMU and Grambling College in Miami's Orange Bowl. Others are, l. to r. Herbert Alexander, vice-president, Student Affairs at FAMU; Chris Conway, Advertising Director, Pepsi-Cola Bottlers of Miami; and George R. Bell, manager, Communications Programs for Pepsi's National Public Relations Dept., New York.

Dr. O. Cannon (left), president of the Camolene Co., of Atlanta, Ga., and George C. Allen, executive vice-president, make plans for the opening of the new plant facilities in the Great Southwest Industrial Park. Mr. Allen, a graduate of Clark College, received his MBA from Northwestern U. and was administrator of the Boulevard General Hospital in Detroit. Before joining the Camolene Co. in January, which manufactures a half-million cans of Mystery of Black hair spray and other hair cosmetics weekly.

Among those appearing at a reception at the BDF Cradle of Pearls Nursery, Michigan and Emerson, are Joe Louis Courton, Bill Bailey of Marine Trust Co., James Bell, Mrs. Geneve Scruggs, Ambrose I. Lane, and others.

—Criterion Photo