S.L. Rosenman Lends Support To Rocky

Samuel L. Rosenman, of New York City, who served himself a "regular and annual" vacation for 20 years, and who was special master of the President Kennedy and Truman, and is now a Governor of the Rockefeller Foundation, has lent his support to the chairman of the "Democratic Fair Republicanism" Judge Rosenman, a joint news conference with Governor Rockefeller in New York City and to his public support of a Republican for Governor's "Robbing the Bank" in the state.

MID-SUMMER ON THE ROCKS— "Think snow and you'll immediately feel cooler," says Edmund Felix, 18, of New York, who cools off at the beach by sculpting winter figures out of sand. Here he shows his "Abominable Snowman" to Rosemary Joyce, the Summer Festival Queen of New York.

Young Edmund, an aspiring sculptor, molded his figure from wire, burlap and sand as part of an environmental art contest sponsored by Rosenman. His efforts were rewarded with a cash prize which he plans to use toward art education courses.

According to Ed, everyone can create artistic beach masterpieces. It's all a matter of proportion and balance," he states. Anyone for something more than sand castles?
