Corn Flake Macaroon Flowers

Bake these chewy cookies for your after-school anchovy. They're made with cereal and milk, two basic foods needed by youngsters every day.

For a festive party, try this! Impale the soft cookies on colored straws; stand them in a flower holder in a pie-box trimmed pot. Serve chocolate milk with the cookies.

Corn Flake Macaroons
4 cups corn flakes, regular, crushed to make 1½
cups fine crumbs
1 can (3½ ounces) flaked coconut
½ cup cornflake cereal
1 can (14 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
2 teaspoons vanilla

Combine cereal crumbs, coconut and nuts in bowl. Add sweetened condensed milk and vanilla; mix well. Spoon level tablespoonfuls onto well-greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) until lightly browned, about 10 minutes.
Yield: 3½ dozen.

GOSPEL CHORUS

A Gospel Chorus singing by a Gospel Chorus? No, singing by a Gospel Quartet! Do you enjoy a lively rendering some of the old favorite hymns? Then Sunday, Sept. 27, is your day. For Home Prince Hall Scotish Rite Temple will present a Gospel Fete with all of the above on that day.

The time is 4 p. m. at the Ira Lucien Memorial AME Church, 1 Church Avenue St. Rev. Otis Washington, pastor.

Come out and support the Musical Treat of the Year. Admission is free.

Coming upon the entertainment scene, is a group which is proving that Buffalo can hold its own with other cities, in the way of talent. The Reflections, whose members are a combination of five different groups, produce a sound that really shows promise. Bobby Morrison, "T" Posey, Billy Goodwin, James Colins and Peter Backey, beat watching in the future.
