If you've got windows like th' ... you've got money to burn

Take a close look: Loose putty • No storm windows or plastic covers • Cracked glass • There are other problems, too.

Windows like this add 15% or more to your monthly gas bills. Money you don't need to spend. Money you could save every month ... by making a few simple repairs yourself, even if you rent.
 We can show you how with a booklet called "Heat Saving Ideas." It's free and it's loaded with tips to save you as much as 50% on your gas heating bills. You'll find it at the new Iroquois Gas East Buffalo Customer Center at 1912 Jefferson near Utica, or at your cooperating hardware store.

 Pick it up now because we want you to save money as much as we want you to save on natural gas. It's that simple.

This free booklet can save you plenty on your gas heating bill!

The studio was brightly lit, the television camera began to roll, and the director pointed and said, "yes." On cue, two women walked on camera carrying parcels of usable, re-pairable material for Goodwill Industries, which have been deposited in a blue Goodwill collection box.

The occasion was the filming of Goodwill television promotion, designed to focus public attention on Goodwill's need for material and the convenience of Goodwill collection boxes.
 The women featured are: Mrs. William M.
 Fugate and Mrs. Willie B. Yates, both of Buffalo.

Fannie Fugate, her husband and their two sons: William, 5 and Robert 4, live on Wy-ming Ave. Mrs. Fugate is employed in the telephone office of Goodwill Industries.

Willie Bell Yates and her four children, Ermita, 17; Dalene, 16; Pamela, 13; and Esther, live on North Division St. Mrs. Yates is Goodwill's collection box placement co-ordinator.

Goodwill Industries need clothing of all types and in all sizes; small appliances and housewares of all descriptions. Goodwill asks only for items private citizens no longer need or want. It is hoped that the recently-filmed television promotion will remind all residents to deposit items that are no longer of use (but repairable) in Goodwill collection boxes for Goodwill to render services to the disabled, only through such donations.

All items given to Goodwill are cleaned, repaired if necessary, and sold in one of the eight Goodwill stores. Store sales account for over eighty percent of Goodwill's revenue.
 Being non-profit, all monies earned by Goodwill are paid to employees in wages and services.

Goodwill's collection box placement co-ordinator, Mrs. Fugate, is a United Fund Agency.

A Firefighter Doesn't Preach The Brotherhood Of Man!

A firefighter is a man responsive to a child's laughter because his arms have held too many small bodies that will never laugh again!

He doesn't preach the brotherhood of man.
 He lives it!
