CRITERION REPRESENTATIVE

The area and advertising in the Buffalo Criterion - News - will have three health units.

Three Erie County Health Dept. programs have been moved to the new Edison Neighborhood Center at 888 William St. It was announced by W. E. Misher, M.D., Commissioner of Health.

The building corner of W. 11th and Union Sts. was rented by a neighborhood health unit through the Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, and a 41,000-sq-ft area at Buffalo Model City Program.

Other Erie County programs at the new premises will be provided of free space for Health Dept. activities and projects of the Community Action Organization.

The building is to be under the general direction of the Edison Neighborhood Center.

The William Silver Nursing Office, formerly at 61 W. 11th St., July 1, 1973, will be moved to the new Edison Neighborhood Center. Telephone numbers are 545-5800, 5451, and 5452.

The Erie County program at the new premises will be provided of free space for Health Dept. activities and projects of the Community Action Organization.

The building is to be under the general direction of the Edison Neighborhood Center.
