Couple Married In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Bernadette Isabella Freeman, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Freeman, Jr., of Buffalo, became the bride of Mr. Jon Vernon Woodbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Woodbury, Jr., of Cleveland, in a candlelight setting, Saturday, the 26th of August, at 6 o'clock in the evening, at the Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church.

The Holy Matrimonial ceremony was performed by the Rev. William H. Herron. The bride was given in marriage by her father, James E. Freeman, Jr.

Beautiful organ preludes were rendered by Mrs. Lowell Wilson, guest soloist, Miss Julia DeBerry.

The bride wore a high neck long sleeve satin gown, accented with embroidered Alencon lace flowers, with a long cathedral train and a silk illusion veil, covered her lace and pearl bead piece. She carried a traditional bouquet of all white tea roses and lily of the valley, accented with a white satin ribbon.

The bride, Bernadette, is a graduate student in Spelman College and the State University of Georgia, in Atlanta. She also served as assistant manager of programming for Radio Station WQXI, in Atlanta.

The groom, Lee Vernon Woodbury, is a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., and presently is a medical student at the University of South Carolina, in Charleston, where both will be attending school.

Long-time friends and relatives of the bride, served as bridesmaids. Miss Lisa Nichols, cousin of the bride, served as best maid of honor.

Other bridesmaids were: Misses Rosalyn Oliver, Sandra Ann Hall, Jacqueline Jones, Anita Howard, Mary Lou Ann Woodbury, Mary Gartrude Woodbury and Mrs. Sylvia Freeman.

The bridesmaids wore floor style high neck dresses in yellow colors, each carrying a bouquet of multi color tea buds and asters.

The flower girl was Terina Woodbury and the ring bearer, Michael Todd Peoples.

Serving as ushermen at the reception, following the ceremony were Messrs. Raymond D. DeBard ,Godmother of the bride, and Messrs. Leonard Woodbury, Jr., and Jon Woodbury, brothers of the groom.

Muriel Davidson "Writes"

A salute to the 1490 Enterprises, Inc., of 1490 Jefferson Avenue, Buffalo, because something really new and great is coming into being in Buffalo. I refer to the "Black Achievers in Industry Awards Dinner," Sunday, September 30, at 7 p.m., in the Golden Falcons of the Statler Hilton Hotel. It is gratifying, so the explainers of these awards were elected by their individual companies, where they work. It pays to do your very best, as you never know who is watching. My sincere congratulations to the persons receiving an award, and may I add that I am one also, beautiful, beautiful!

Mrs. Mary Louise Wright was chairman of a most successful Bridge Party in Toronto, Canada, sponsored by the Phyllis Wheatley Club, a member of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. They had a delicious luncheon, delightful, old scene shopping and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McGowan of Northampton St., had as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thorpes, Dr. Bessie Thorpes and Mrs. Sarah G. Bayers, all of Richmond, Va. The Thorpes are relatives of Mrs. McGowan. We are told they were elated over Niagara Falls and enjoyed "Our City of Good Neighbors," very much.

Mrs. Florence Willis visited friends in Jamestown, N. Y., and had a most wonderful visit, and a good time. Mrs. Willis resides in Willett Park in Buffalo.

Mrs. Jessie Roberts had a good time visiting Florida. She even went to Disney World. She also resides in Willett Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lovett entertained at a graduation party for their daughter, Gwendolyn McGowan, and a number of her friends from the State University at Buffalo. The party was held in their lovely home in Hamilton Hill. The affair was well attended by many relatives and friends. Miss McGowan, we wish you a most brilliant and successful future.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Garrett of East Ferry St., were grandparents, Friday, Sept. 5th, to a new grand daughter, Miss Darcell Garrett and their great grand children, Gregory and Grindi, of Saginaw, Michigan. The Garretts were right at home in Dallas, as they come from Texas, originally and were treated like a king and queen by relatives and many friends! These great people were asked to stay and not return to Buffalo, not so, says Mrs. Garrett. Texas is wonderful, but Buffalo, is our home.

The Lachawanna "Go Getters," were in Dallas, at the Eli National Convention. Members are: Mesdames Eula Owens, Thelma Richardson, Ruth Hook, Carrie Wilson, Beatrice Randolph, Christine Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Barber. What a great group of people!

The following are Daughter Elks who received their Past Grand Daughter Ruler Jewels in Dallas, at the National Convention. Daughters Jessie Bradley, Louise Coleman, Thelma Dial, Callie Hembert, Julia Moore, Velma Williams. They are Buffalo daughters.

Please send all your news to me, at The Buffalo Criterion, 625 William St., Buffalo, N. Y. 14206, or call me at 883-3350, Buffalo, N. Y. 14208.

No matter where I am, or what I do, I'll be happy to have news from you.

Rochester, N. Y. — Dr. Horace Judson spent the summer lowering about the methods and techniques used in industrial research at the Eastek Research Laboratory. Dr. Judson is a chemist professor at Morgan State College, in Baltimore, Md., Dr. Judson is shown running an organic reaction Ire cube photography studio.

THE EXPLORING COOK
by MURIEL JANSEN

SHE COOKS BY VIBES

If you don't know Vera Lynn Trebor, you've missed the book, "Vibration Cooking" by Vibration Cookery. Vera's daughter, cook — you name it — Vera Lynn, has put the ingredients and directions for her pesto and how for Vibration Cookery in her pleasure, to swagga and Vibrations.

Vera Lynn is a cook that I discovered how much we have in common. I cook by vibration and Vera Lynn is a cook by vibration.

FISH JAMAICA STYLE

2½ pounds fresh fish
Juice of 2 lemons
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon seasoning salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
½ cup oil
½ cup onion, sliced
½ cup green pepper, sliced
1 tablespoon capers
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
½ cup olive vinegar
1 bay leaf
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon thyme
½ teaspoon curry powder

Clean fish, cut steaks or fillets. Season with lemon juice, onion salt, seasoning salt, pepper and paprika. Let stand in refrigerator for 1 hour. Fry fish dry with paper towels. Pour over oil in large heavy skillet; heat to 375°. Fry fish 5 to 7 minutes on each side, depending on thickness of fish. Remove fish to platter and keep warm. Empty skillet, clean and return to heat. Add vinegar, seasoning salt and pepper, bay leaf, thyme, curry powder and capers; bring to boil and simmer 5 minutes. Place fish on platter and pour sauce over fish. Garnish with parsley flakes. Serve with rice. Serves 6. Recipe may be doubled successfully. Serve cold or reheat and serve hot. Makes about 2 servings. Note: Muriel Jansen is a graduate dietitian, B.S. Degree, Division of CPC International Inc. She shares the above recipe with Margie, our cook.

JIM MORRIS HOLDS
"Mr. U. S. A." TITLE

Los Angeles — "Mr. America," "Mr. USA — Both of these 1975 Amateur Athletic Union titles are held by a single man. He is Jim Morris, a Black bodybuilder and interior designer from Los Angeles. And if "Black is Beautiful," can be realized in one man, the male beauty ideal would be in the 6' 1", 215-pound Jim. But Jim represents all that is beautiful in the black community.

These titles represent the top of the bodybuilding pyramid in this country. Thousands of men compete yearly in AAU contests and only those who win at the national titles can go on to the world competition. Jim is age 37, Jim is the oldest to hold either of the both. He also took the "Mr. Universe" title for the largest victory margin ever.
