BUFFALO CRITERION

A Sermon On Criterion

Vol. 1 No. 1 Buffalo, N. Y. Saturday, Sept. 30, 1972

Sunday Sept. 30, Rev. Hall preached in Cleveland, Ohio, at First Zion Baptist Church, Rev. H. C. Coleman, pastor. All enjoyed a lovely service and a beautiful song service by the choir.

Rev. Hall said that Rev. Coleman does a great job in Cleveland, for the people told me said the Rev. Coleman was once a prior fighter, fighting in Buffalo and all over the country but he is now on the battle field, fighting for the Lord Jesus Christ. He is not glaring with the devil, he is fighting to win, because he heard Jesus. Its written say in Revelation 3:21 To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my father in his throne.

Rev. Hall tolc the congregation that he thanked God for His man of God, for the stand he has taken for God.

The Evangelist preached from Romans 2:14 & 15 that men don't profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him?

Rev. Hall answered these questions by saying, no. Faith alone will not save us. We must have works to go with it. He said it is scripture, "When Jesus heard these words, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing." Hey, because he obeyed the words of Jesus and did what he said regained that his sight. He was healed by faith and also worked by faith to the pool.

Rev. Hall closed his sight Continuing, we read in Hebrews from Revelations 20-12, "And see the dead, great and small, stand before God, and the books were open: Another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works."

Rev. Hall said, Jesus, the Lord his listeners not to work for the meat which endureth to eternal life, which the son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the father sealed. Then they said unto him, what shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, this is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

This was a wonderful sermon, enjoyed by many.

Our sick and shut-in: are: Mrs. Ella Mae Gaines, Mrs. Ann Ayer, Mrs. Mary J. Wright, 24 Lily Street, Mrs. Mary Hall, Mr. Henry Hutchins, in service, Mrs. Lillian Hall, 1 Mrs. Mildred Fillmore Hospital, Emma Lee.

Rev. Hall asked for prayer for the sick.

A Word for the neighbor and a friend and a friend of Mrs. Dorothy Harris, in service.

By SIS. DELLA M. GUTTON

Sunday morning divine service was was opened by Pastor Hall singing, "Meet Jesus Bear The Cross." The congregation was gathered around the altar for prayer by Rev. Ernest Dixon and others.

Macedonia was happy to have the Junior Choir back after being on vacation for the summer, and also pianist and organist, Mr. Fred Hinkle, who spent the summer in Georgia.

The pastor's message was from I Corinthians 15:19, "If there is a God in Heaven that rewarded wicked and unjust, known to the king Nebuchadnezzar, and also to the Jews." Pastor Hall's subject was, "Thank God for Somewhere." It was a wonderful message.

Sister Lucille Hinkle and Jerome Thornton in services last Sunday, Oct. 7, from FIRST Church of God in Christ, 1911 Jefferson Ave., attended at the University of Buffalo.

Rev. Annie D. Miller was guest speaker at Macedonia Day at the Hopewell Baptist Church, Hopewell, Va., where Rev. John D. Lyles, pastor. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bertha Pete, of New Macedonia Church.

New Macedonia's Junior Choir and Senior Choir will be heard over WEFD, Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. from the Pentecostal Church of God In Christ, 2042 Jefferson Ave. Otis Bonie is pastor.

Pastor Hall has brought the message onto the radio for the past 3 years. He says the message — "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." This was the 11th Anniversary, and the public is invited.

On Monday evening, Oct. 1st Bishop Robeson and congregation of Mount Olive Church, 1 Mineola, were entertained by Bishop Watson and congregation of Macedonia. Bishop Robeson was in charge of the program. Bishop Watson gave greetings, ministers from various churches in Buffalo, Jr. choir, and Mrs. Hall, the Anniversary. The public is invited to attend these services.
