Heritage Art Exhibit To Run Daily

The Buffalo Urban League pleased to announce that its Heritage Art Exhibit will continue to run daily (except Saturdays and Sundays) through October 12, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Buffalo Urban League Office, 401 Broadway, at Pratt St.

Buffalo Plans Center

The proposed Buffalo Convention and Exhibition Center will have some 115,000 square feet of exhibition and meeting space. The facilities will be capable of handling over 75 percent of the conventions held in the United States today.

The half-million, two-story building will also be an ideal meeting place for local organizations, community functions and banquets. "Multiple partitions will make it adaptable for groups with as few as three people. There are some 4,000 public and privately-operated parking spaces within three blocks of the Convention and Exhibition Center site at Franklin, Court, Pearl and Genesee Sts.

Philip Smith, president of the League and Manager of Niagara Prevention Savings and Loan Association, presides over the annual fall meeting of the Savings and Loan League of WNY which will be held Wednesday, Oct. 10, at the Parkwood House, 3300 Transit Road, West Seneca.

BDF Drive

During the month of October, the Black Development Foundation, Inc., will conduct its 19th Annual Membership Drive. Donald E. Lee, savvy sponsored Executive Director, presented the philosophy of BDF: its future goals and directions, during the "Kick-off," Friday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m., at 377 Genesee St. Refreshments, prizes and entertainment were featured.

Savings - Loan League's Meeting

VOTE "YES" for Convention/Exhibition Center Local Questionnaire

It's estimated that the Convention and Exhibition Center will stimulate up to $80 million in new private construction downtown in the next 15 years. This will provide many jobs. It means more property tax revenue enabling the city to maintain needed parks, schools and general services in local neighborhoods.

See more information on the $80 million, 25 stories a day. Post by the Convention Center to Buffalo, Inc. 120 Delaware Ave., Buffalo, N.Y. 14202 - Richard W. Schickel is the project coordinator.

Meeting on both the Republican and Liberal tickets, is the only condition faced by the "troubled" by the leading Bar Associations of New York State. The Convention has begun recruiting supporters with the Law School and has also arranged for Judge Breen to be the speaker at the Law School in October, the exact date is yet to be announced.

The committee is composed of: Kay Lester, Editor-in-Chief of the Opinion, the Law School; Mark and Timothy Hughes, Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Most Court Board; Lester G.
