

A-Non Hero-in

The Center for Government Research, is presently conducting a survey to finally determine the number of homes added in Monroe County, as reported by the Federal government.

"The federal government disagrees with the professor's estimate," says the professor, "but they are right about this one, too. Last year almost 4000 new homes were built in Monroe County, because the State Legislature and Governor Bredford have established these courts throughout the state."

Franklin C. Johnson, Jr., director of the University of Rochester's Educational Opportunity Program, has been named a member of Commission on Student Personnel Programs in Junior Colleges, of the American Personnel Association.

Observance Of American Education Week

Two exciting programs will be held at Woodlawn Junior High School in Observance of American Education Week. On Wednesday, Oct. 24th, from 10:30 to 4:00 p.m., an Open House will be held for the school and community, to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of the school. Suitable ceremonies at a 4 p.m. assembly will honor the many teachers who have been on the staff since the school opened in 1964.

On Friday, Oct. 26th the school is holding its 2nd Annual Bring-A-Parent-To-School Day. Parents of Woodlawn Junior High School students are invited to spend all day or any portion of the school day watching their youngsters at school in regular classroom. A luncheon will be included.

The entire adult Woodlawn community is cordially invited to these two very important programs by the school Principal, James Williams, Jr. in a fine opportunity to be able to show to pride for the community. Parents are also their chance for the public education of their children. It is a part of this year's American Education Week theme: "Get Involved!"

Hip and The Whisky.

It's Canadian MacNaughton, the one whisky you can both call your own. Because it's deliciously light, smooth and mellow for every young man. Yet it's still a premium 86.8 proof. With a price that's as easy to take on the taste. So, when you drink together, drink Canadian MacNaughton. It's twice as good that way.

INTRODUCING NEWS IN THE MOTHER TONGUE

For Black people, the mother tongue is the same old, old country. It's the unique language of our people. That's one of the reasons the National Black Network uses the mother tongue in its national Black news service.

What is this Black news? It's simply the Black news that you expect to see in Black papers, and affecting the lives of Black people.

That's the National Black Network - a vital communications link between Black communities everywhere.

It's a real find when you listen to an ANB station; you'll know where it's coming from. After all, it's carrying your news.
