

Happy Birthday, Rev. Byrd

The congregation of People's parish church was served in community Church, 472 1/2 on numbers, and stands at a 50, planned to serve his birthday party in Rev. Byrd's home, 1114, in the afternoon, D. S. Maxwell, the morning worship. A live is leading the song, "Happy birthday," so Rev. and Mrs. Byrd opened the dining hall. Mrs. Smith is on the left. G. T. Smith, right.

Big Band. The subject was President Truman. Mrs. Smith was the guest speaker. Most had 200 guests enjoyed the service and the dinner. — Criticism Photo

The committee which sponsored the Annual Men's and Women's Day Program and Dinner at Deloitte-Warling AME Church, 685 Swan St., report the observance was a total success aptly and handsomely. Rev. John C. Carr was the guest and John Beach, General Chairman.

The committee included: Treas. J. J. Scarborough, Co-Chairman: Ann Anderson, President of Yvonne Beard; Captain Len McQuinn and Joe James, Chairman, Chairman of Public Relations and Journal Chairman: Mrs. Chalfont Threlkoff, Secretary S. Henry,

A Captain, Mrs. Lucille Fuller, President of Yvonne Beard; Captain Len McQuinn and Joe James, Chairman, Chairman of Public Relations and Journal Chairman: Mrs. Chalfont Threlkoff, Secretary S. Henry,

— Criticism Photo

Men's and Women's Day Services Huge Success

CRITERION PRESS OUR 50th YEAR -- of -- SERVICE

1923 - - - 1973

Rochester Niagara Region The Metropolitan Buffalo CRITERION

VOL. 47--No. 34

Saturday, November 30-31, 1973

Local 15c--National 20c.

Western New York's Oldest, Largest and Best Selling Negro Weekly

PHOTO BELOW COMMUNITY Forums Positoned

Several persons were cited at the President-Bishoped Tenor's Association's Annual Award's Night, held at the Central Lutheran Church, 29 Brossway St., recently. The awards were presented by Dr. Wilbur S. McGowan, a leading head cleric. In the picture are from left to right: Dolores Galt, who received an award for "Mildred Proficiency"; Dr. Mike "Responsible Mentions"; Georgeanne Wynn, "General Excellence"; Miss Barbara Glasgow, senior President of the Negro Regional Nurses Club and organizer; Mrs. Wilbur S. McGowan, and Dr. Charles, organizer and President of Negro Regional Nurses Club. For names in the photo are Geraldine Harris, who received

In Concert At Westminister House To Take Trip

Miss Hilda Harris, Mease Harmon star with the New York City Opera will be presented in concert at the Westminister Community House, 421 Madison St., Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m., in "An Evening of Song and Talk." She will make her debut with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra on December 15th. Miss Harris has many awards and has won several Grammy Awards. She has performed in the Metropolitan Opera, in the Pittsburgh and Jacksonville Symphonies and at the Edinboro and New York City, California, Philadelphia. Miss Harris has received her BA in Music from North Carolina State and continued her vocal and musical studies in New York City, under John Brown and Jonathan Blau. In addition to his excellent vocal appearance in Western New York, Miss Harris this will perform solo in Europe and with opera companies and orchestras in this country. She is an exciting artist. Most people will spend the Thanksgiving holiday vacation with their families, but Jonathan Young will be on the go. At 7:30 p.m. on the evening of November 29th, Miss Young, community relations director of WGR-TV, will climb to Mount St. Ag, to begin a journey to Europe. She will be accompanied by her husband, who won't be a vacation for Ms. Young. She will be participating in the Partners of the American Exchange program and during her stay in Jamaica, she will represent to gain a better understanding of the problems that Americans and Jamaicans face in common. She will also gather material for an episode of her television show, "Take A Look At Jamaica," which airs every afternoon on Channel 2. "I want to show young people the beauty that exists in the Western New York area."

Miss Harris received her BA in Music from North Carolina State and continued her vocal and musical studies in New York City, under John Brown and Jonathan Blau. In addition to his excellent vocal appearance in Western New York, Miss Harris this will perform solo in Europe and with opera companies and orchestras in this country. She is an exciting artist. Most people will spend the Thanksgiving holiday vacation with their families, but Jonathan Young will be on the go. At 7:30 p.m. on the evening of November 29th, Miss Young, community relations director of WGR-TV, will climb to Mount St. Ag, to begin a journey to Europe. She will be accompanied by her husband, who won't be a vacation for Ms. Young. She will be participating in the Partners of the American Exchange program and during her stay in Jamaica, she will represent to gain a better understanding of the problems that Americans and Jamaicans face in common. She will also gather material for an episode of her television show, "Take A Look At Jamaica," which airs every afternoon on Channel 2. "I want to show young people the beauty that exists in the Western New York area."

that there are people who are in a bad shape, but compared to certain areas in Jamaica, we are well off. "The booklet was selected for the program, according to Roger Goss, president of the Western New York area of Partners of the American, because of her unique ability to interpret the United States to foreign visitors. "Jamaica has shown a special interest in this area," said Mr. Goss. "When Partners was looking for someone to coordinate both work to be on-site," said "Jamaite served a national role."

NPNA Asks For Allotment

Washington, D. C. (NPNA)—The National Newspaper Publishers Association (NPNA), through its Executive Director, Sherman Bessner, asked the Corporation for Public Broadcasting that month for an annual allotment of $5,000,000 for Black Journal, Inc. Black Journal, Inc. is a non-profit organization. The request represents 10 times the amount now being allotted to Black programs by CPB out of its $65 million budget. Bessner was among a half dozen operators, who testified, before CPB in behalf of more NPNA ASKS FOR ALLOTMENT See Page 2.

Guest Speaker

Rev. Ralph Law will be the guest speaker for the "Practice Nurses' Alliance" luncheon held at the Sheraton Hotel, 200 Madison Ave., at 7 p.m. Dr. Elaine Jacobs, Clinical Professor of the University of Buffalo, and Buffalo attorney Joseph and Mrs. Thore M. Charles, Jr., Assistant Director of the Nursing Home Association, will be honored by the Alliance Association.

Rev. Ralph Law will be the guest speaker for the "Practice Nurses' Alliance" luncheon held at the Sheraton Hotel, 200 Madison Ave., at 7 p.m. Dr. Elaine Jacobs, Clinical Professor of the University of Buffalo, and Buffalo attorney Joseph and Mrs. Thore M. Charles, Jr., Assistant Director of the Nursing Home Association, will be honored by the Alliance Association.

Rev. Ralph Law will be the guest speaker for the "Practice Nurses' Alliance" luncheon held at the Sheraton Hotel, 200 Madison Ave., at 7 p.m. Dr. Elaine Jacobs, Clinical Professor of the University of Buffalo, and Buffalo attorney Joseph and Mrs. Thore M. Charles, Jr., Assistant Director of the Nursing Home Association, will be honored by the Alliance Association.

Blue Cross Fetes Employees

Western New York's Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans, under 200 employees Friday night, Nov. 16, at their Annual Anniversary Banquet. The 200, representing almost two years' service at Blue Cross and Blue Shield employees. The banquet was held at the Sheraton Hotel, 200 Madison Ave., at 7 p.m. Blue Cross President, Charles E. Roth and John T. Macdonald, President of Blue Shield, noted that this remarkable record of service to their community is the finest evidence. It is clear that without the outstanding loyalty and dedication of such a high percentage of the staff, Blue Cross could not maintain the positions of leadership they hold today, with over one million subscribers in Western New York. Criticism is proud to acknowledge that our subscribers, Ralph Davidson, has 20 years service.

West Hertel Students Complete Booklet At

Students of West Hertel Middle School, at the West Hertel High School, completed a booklet of "Family For the Family," for Education Year. The booklet was a jointly written project of students from West Hertel Middle School, and West Hertel High School. The booklet was a jointly written project of students from West Hertel Middle School, and West Hertel High School.

Members of Writing Workshop

Members of the Writing Workshop, at the West Hertel High School, last week, from left to right are Paul Field and Mike Katz. Back row, 1 to 6, are: Julie Lewis, JoAnn Thomas, Angela Klips and Barbara Pagnan. Front row, 1 to 6, are: Mike Katz, Paul Field and Mike Katz.

"Funny Face" At Studio Arena Dec. 6-30

Gardner's Wonderful 1973 Musical "Funny Face" will be staged at Studio Arena, 1114 Broadway, Dec. 6-30. The play will be the most successful production of the year. The play will be the most successful production of the year.

Members of Writing Workshop

Members of the Writing Workshop, at the West Hertel High School, last week, from left to right are Paul Field and Mike Katz. Back row, 1 to 6, are: Julie Lewis, JoAnn Thomas, Angela Klips and Barbara Pagnan. Front row, 1 to 6, are: Mike Katz, Paul Field and Mike Katz.

"Funny Face" At Studio Arena Dec. 6-30

Gardner's Wonderful 1973 Musical "Funny Face" will be staged at Studio Arena, 1114 Broadway, Dec. 6-30. The play will be the most successful production of the year. The play will be the most successful production of the year.

"Funny Face" At Studio Arena Dec. 6-30

Gardner's Wonderful 1973 Musical "Funny Face" will be staged at Studio Arena, 1114 Broadway, Dec. 6-30. The play will be the most successful production of the year. The play will be the most successful production of the year.

Buy Bonds