Attended a Christmas party at the Past State Presidents (ESA's) of Western New York at the home of the President, Mrs. Mary Johnson of Marion Ave. The Past State Presidents that were there are as follows: Dpt. Mary Johnson, Dpt. Jessie M. Jeffries, Dpt. Thelma Dick, Dpt. Estelle McCune, Dpt. Jeanette Bell, Dpt. Velma J. Williams, Dpt. Edna D. Young, Dpt. Ophelia Chapman, Dpt. Julia Moore, Dpt. Hazel E. Caldwell, Dpt. Jessie Bradley, Dpt. Dorothy Doyle, Dpt. Elodea Lewis and Dpt. Fannie Morris. Dpt. Alfredia Edwards, absent due to illness. All members asked a guest, yours truly the guest of Mrs. Jessie M. Jeffries. These ladies had a wonderful party and the food was just lurious, I am quite sure a very good time was had by all.

Mrs. Thelma Dick of Goulding Ave. wishes to express her deep appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy from the following: Durham Memorial Church members, Clubs and Boards, Co-workers from the Veteran's Hospital, many friends and Elite Temple No. 163 due to the loss of her brother. Mrs. Dick say's that she can never forget such kindness, and may God bless you all.

Here is sending a Happy New Year's to my Lachawanna friends: Mrs. Ruth Black, Mrs. Beatrice Randolph, Mrs. Zula Owens, Mrs. Carrie Wilson, Mrs. Ella M. Richardson, Mr. & Mrs. Benjamin Barber, Mrs. Christine Thomas and Mrs. Mabel Trotti. A truly great group of people.

The holiday spirit is just wonderful. The Blue Cross and Blue Shield employees really enjoyed themselves last Friday at their party that started at 6 p.m. Each brought goodies to make their tables just look delectable, but so spirits allowed. Is Pines's and Schick-owitz's became the center of attraction after Santa Claus gave out the inter-change of gifts.

We are certainly glad to hear that Mrs. Alfredia Edwards is getting better and coming along just fine. We hope that she will be trying to get out of that hospital as soon as she can, as she likes to keep busy with her positive and fer-Elite.

Our sympathy and prayers to Mrs. Mamette Johnson, Mrs. Marion Harrison and Mr. David Wright, Ill. in the loss of their mother, Mrs. Jeffie Wright.

Our sympathy in the family of Mrs. Dolores Goggins.

Mrs. Annie Craddock of Los Angeles, Calif. visiting family and friends for the holidays, and guess what? Guess this is a little squirrel monkey that is as sweet as can be, he almost talks.

Did you know that the first step in solving a problem is to see it clearly, and therefore beholden is very true relative of anthropology?

May I leave you with this thought: "May the warm winds of heaven blow softly on your house and may the great spirit bless all who enter there."

Please send all your news to me at the Buffalo Criterion, 625 William St., Buffalo, N. Y. 14206 or "69 Enst Durham, Buffalo, N. Y. Because no matter where I am or what I do I'll be happy to have news from you.

Miss Kiner recited Longfellow Hughes' "Dear Dr. Bantu."

Second, third and fourth place winners in the contest for Girls of Grades 10 through 12 were Cindy Mosley and Mary Langhof of South Park.

Blood Donors Needed

Buffalo Chapter — Negro Co-Hosts" is the theme of this year's effort by the Greater Buffalo Regional Red Cross Chapter to recruit blood donations during the holiday season.

The weeks around Christmas and New Year's are traditionally blood shortage periods, but the fear of which is not shared by the medical profession. Blood is used during the holiday season.

Mrs. Ruth Black, Blood Program Chairman, said a minimum of 1,000 pints of blood a days are needed to meet the demands of Buffalo area hospitals and health facilities.

Mrs. Black said mobile blood donation schedules shown below are the ones that are sponsored by groups and not from the general public at the Red Cross Center, 786 Delaware Avenue.

A special "Holiday Angel" poster has been created for Red Cross blood donors similar to the one for blood donors. In addition, groups that regularly participate in the Blood Program are encouraged to ask their members to donate during the holidays.

Special hours have been planned for the Blood Center during the holidays because they have scheduled to work at the Blood Center during the holidays.

Mr. Mattier has asked cooperation from the general public to donate blood during the Cross Blood Center (Mobile) for their own convenience to make an appointment before coming to the Center.

Mrs. Black's mobile schedule is as follows: Monday, Dec. 31, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m.; Jan. 2, 7 a.m 8 p.m.; Jan. 3, 2 to 8 p.m.; Jan. 4, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Jan. 5, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; and Jan. 5, 9:30 to 12:30 p.m.

State Directors or Counselors should write to Pageants, Inc., Box 2400, 1 to 4th 11370 Davisville, Va. 24561, U. S. A.

The Miss Black Teen United World Pageant is not affiliated with any other pageant and presently is the only Worldwide Pageant. Miss Black Teen United and Pageants Unlimited is the sole producer of the event.

Director Of World Wide Teenage Pageant Named

Danville, Va. — Pageants Unlimited, Inc., of Danville, and producers of the Miss Black Teenage World Pageant, announced that Mrs. Mary Wilson, a Hampton Institute graduate, has been named as Pageant Director of the Worldwide Teenage Pageant of 1974.

Miss Wilson is a Music Major and Director of Choir Activities at Hampton Institute.

Starting with the 1974 Miss "Brush Out — Touch a Teen," Miss Black Teen United World, 1973 said, "in viewing Miss Wilson's qualifications as a pageant participant, as well as her role contestant, as well as her musical background, it is essential that we provide systems of opportunity for talented young people as they strive to make their mark."

Pageant Unlimited is dedicated to finding and developing talented people to take their places in all walks of life, and the people of the world will be the beneficiaries of the pageant's future contestants in the years to come. We need individual and collective action and concern to make our program meaningful to society in general and the blacks in particular."

Charity also announced that another teenager was selected to represent Buffalo in Miss Black Teen United, Pageants, a Nashville, Tenn. Pageant sponsored annually by International Talent Productions. Miss Wilson and Miss Hamblett have been enrolled in the Pageants Unlimited class in hospitality. In addition to the Pageants Director and Assistant Director, auxiliary managers, Miss Gail Shannon, Junior Miss Black Teenage World, and Miss Hamblett, Miss Teen Junior United Nations for the 1973 Miss Black Teen United Pageant, the Worldwide Teenage Pageant is open to teenagers 15 to 17 years of age, academic scholarship achievement, poise, charm, self confidence, personality, and articulation. VISIBILITY TIPS
A clear away from your car's windshield wipers is vital to safe driving, it is said.

The wipers should completely clear the area which they cover. If they leave the area smeared or streaked, they should be replaced. You may wish to add the wiping blades to the list of items you should carry in the trunk.

Most windshield wipers are made of rubber. Rubber can dry and become brittle. Some drivers have the habit of wiping the windshield with a dry cloth before starting a journey. Don't do this, it will scratch the glass.

Remedial services will be offered for 10 consecutive Saturdays, during the spring and summer sessions, at the State University College. Children must be referred by diagnostic sessions before they are accepted for services.
