NEW CANDLE FACTORY,

IN BROAD STREET,
(A few rods east of the lower end of Main-st.)
CATSKILL.

THE Candle Factory, formerly at the head of the Street, is now removed to Broad-Street, where we are manufacturing mould and dipped CANDLES, of all sorts and sizes, to suit purchasers. The patronage of the village and its vicinity thus far has been gratefully received—a continuance of the same custom is respectfully solicited. Merchants in the country, who have heretofore been supplied from New-York, will be furnished on the most favorable terms. C. TROWBRIDGE & Co.

Temple of Fashion,

PETER COLLYER,

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and former customers, that he has recommenced the TAILORING BUSINESS "upon his own hook," at the stand directly opposite E. Hawley's, where he will be glad to wait upon all who may feel disposed to favor him with their custom; and he flatters himself, that his work will be done in as neat, fashionable and durable manner, as that generally put off by his neighbors, as he intends acting as a foreman himself. He will keep a good selection of trimmings.

Country orders thankfully received. Cutting faithfully attended to.

MILITARY WORK

made according to the statute,
Catskill, Sept. 25, 1828. 71

EASE, DESPATCH & ELEGANCE COMBINED.

MARTIN CROSS, Barber, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he has taken possession of his new and pleasantly situated shop, opposite the Catskill Bank, where he will at all times be found at home, and ready to attend to those who may favor him with their custom.

He has just received from New-York a large assortment of first rate Razors, which he warrants to cut with ease—if not, they can be returned. Hair Brushes, Combs, Soaps, Oils, fancy goods, and every other article usually found in such establishments, all of which are warranted to be superior articles, manufactured for use, and not for show.

HAIR CUTTING in the newest style, and SHAVING promptly attended to as usual.
Catskill, August 14, 1828. 65

CATSKILL HOUSE.

THE Proprietor of this establishment begs leave to tender his grateful acknowledgments to his old acquaintance and customers, for the friendly support they have heretofore rendered him. Having no black-leg, nor other pensioned or servile runners in his employ, to trumpet and electioneer for him, it will be readily perceived, that, in order to merit and secure the patronage of the public, he must depend upon his own exertions to please and accommodate; and he assures, not only his old friends, &c. but the public generally, that his most assiduous endeavours shall not be wanting to render his guests comfortable, and to deserve their support in future. M. CROSWELL.
