Republican Caucus.

A meeting of the Republican electors of the town of Ticonderoga will be held at the Opera House, Ticonderoga, Saturday evening, Feb. 28, to nominate candidates to be voted for at the coming town meeting, to be held Tuesday, March 3d, '85.

Democratic Caucus.

A meeting of the Democratic electors of the town of Ticonderoga will be held at the Court Room, Gilligan & Stevens block, Ticonderoga, Saturday evening, Feb. 28, to nominate candidates to be voted for at the coming town meeting to be held Tuesday, March 3d, '85.

Prohibition Caucus.

A meeting of the Prohibition electors of the town of Ticonderoga will be held at the residence of Gustave Wicker on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock to nominate candidates for town officers for the ensuing year. By order of Committee.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—Mrs. Fred Ives is visiting her people in Westport.

—Miss S. A. Arthur is visiting friends in Glens Falls.

—There are 56 licensed saloons in Plattsburgh at present.

—Mr. Albert Doiback, of New Hague, started for Courtland yesterday to take a position in a store there.

—Read Quackenbush & Co's new advertisement in another column. They offer rare bargains just now.

—Now is the time to prepare for spring trade by judicious advertising. It's the keynote of success, as the proverb saith.

—Let everybody bear in mind the change in the time of holding election this year. Next Tuesday, is the day a month earlier than usual.

—It is given out that St. John, the great prohibitionist leader, will hold a temperance camp meeting on Lake George during the coming summer. Arrangements are now being made for it.

—Mr. Brewster, who represents Mr. Cragg the jeweler here, has just sustained a painful loss in the death of his daughter Emma after a brief illness.

—Mr. John McConley and son, of Cheever, were nearly frozen to death while on their way home from Vermont Monday night of last week.

—Mr. O. W. Adkins of Street Road placed fifteen different varieties of apples on our desk the other day. They are all of his own raising, and are splendid specimens of the fruit.

—The Lake George Pulp and Paper Co. now supply with paper the Baltimore Sun, Washington Post, Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, New Haven Register and New Haven Journal.

—A Port Henry artist has just completed an oil painting that is said to knock all the efforts of the Old Masters into a cocked hat, so to speak. Anything less than that would not be in keeping with Port Henry's manner of doing things.

—Mr. P. Sullivan, formerly of Ticonderoga, has in company with Mr. Madden purchased the Globe hotel of Glens Falls from John C. Tillotson for $8,000. They will assume possession May 1st, previous to which time they will give up the Carpenter hotel, Lake George.

—Mrs. Alinda Thomson, of Lewis, wife of Wm Thomson, had the good luck to draw a pension on her departed son who died in the army during the late war. Her pension amounted to over $2,000. After getting the pension she left her husband and went West, taking the money with her. It is rather hard on Mr. Thompson as he is poor both in health and purse.

—The Star Base ball club will reorganize next week and elect officers for the coming year. They will play about the same team as they did last season. Right after lent the club will hold a fair and ball in the Opera House, the proceeds of which will go for the purchase of new uniforms, improving the grounds, building a grand stand, &c. The opening game will be played Decoration Day. The clubs prospects for this summer are excellent.

—A cruel joke was perpetrated on the coasters, Wednesday night, by some of the wicked boys of town. These latter shoveled a monstrous heap of snow right in the path of the big sled which carries about a dozen. Down it came with the velocity of a locomotive. The steersman saw the impending danger but too late to avoid it. Into the drift they went, which almost smothered them all. When the boys finally managed to extricate themselves they looked as though they had been in Mr. S. J. Moore's employ for a month, so white were they. Now they simply want to know who were the authors of their calamity—that's all.

—Notice Warner and Lee's new advertisement on first page.

—There will be a mask carnival at the Opera House rink in Port Henry, next Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Thomas Cowan, a well known resident of Ironville died at his home in that place on Friday last of rheumatic fever.

—E. B. Douglass of Shoreham has received the third premium of $25, on butter sent to the exposition at New Orleans.

—Preparations are being made for the production of the grand millary drama entitled "The Blue and the Gray" here, first week in April.

—Joseph Warren of Sebroun Lake, has received a check for back-pay on a pension for $1,650, and he is allowed $10 a month for the future.

—A. B. Robinson, of Street Road, who is the candidate for postmaster there, in case of a change, has just shipped two car loads of apples to New York.

—Mr. T. E. Bally says that he'll back back Frank Lambert and Flora Huff against any team in this state outside of New York for $1,000, or more.

—We are assured that there will be a dramatic troupe here next summer; not the Idle Hours, but one said to be far superior. This is saying a good deal.

—The latest addition to business circles Mr. James Thomson of New York who has entered partnership with Munasingham the popular tailor. See advertisement in another column.

—The Sun's Albany special says according to the official opinion of Judge Tappan of the supreme court, the state of New York has not at this moment a title to a foot of land in the Adirondack forests.

—The new bank is the cause of much favorable comment on the part of its many visitors this week. It is certainly a credit to the place. Attorney Dornburgh will occupy its old quarters, in Drake's block.

—Thursday morning last Mrs. Bridget Brady of Mineville was discovered dead in her bed, an infant two years of age in her arms. The cause of her death was pronounced apoplexy. The deceased was about 42 years of age.

—Ticonderoga is reaching out, Mr. Ives has just completed his contract of supplying the woodwork for Mr. Midbury's new mansion at Ballston, and our enterprising photographer, Mr. Fillmore, is in Troy this week while he is summoned to do work for some rich and fastidious Trojan firm.

—Miss Mary Fletcher died of congestion of the lungs at the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, Vt., at 5:30 o'clock P. M. Tuesday. She was one of the founders of the Fletcher free library at Burlington and the founder of the Mary Fletcher hospital, giving $75,000 for the grounds and buildings and $125,000 for endowment of the hospital.

—There arrived in this market Friday for the first time, a quantity of smelts caught through the ice of Lake Champlain. The smelts usually on sale here and in the Boston and New York markets come from Nova Scotia and the Penobscot river, Maine. Those from Lake Champlain are found to be much superior in flavor and the traffic in them may become important, particularly if they are tasted by metropolitan fish eaters.—Troy Telegram.

—The prohibitionists of town intend to run a ticket of their own this year. They will not hold their caucuses, however, until after the Republicans and Democrats have held theirs, and will induce those candidates of both tickets, regardless of parties, that meet with their approval as far as relates to temperance. Mr. Silas J. Moore is understood to be their choice for supervisor and Mr. Gustave Wicker for excise commissioner.

—Deacon Wolcott and his wife celebrated their golden wedding the other evening with a small party. Mrs. Wolcott was Miss Wells of Greenfield, Mass., and the two were of course married in 1836. Five boys have been born to them, the eldest being Rev. Henry Wolcott, who lived in Massachusetts for the last 12 years and is now about going to California. M. Wolcott was elected deacon of the Congregational church in 1835, and held the position for 41 years when failing eyesight compelled him to resign.—Shoreham Cor.

—At the annual fair of the Essex County agricultural Society to be held in Westport Sept. 15, 16, 17th, 1885, the executive committee of the Society will offer every inducement to exhibitors and horsemen to be present. The Society being nearly out of debt have increased their premiums to a figure that make it an object for all that have stock or articles, to complete for. The track will be repaired and refitted and made second to none in northern New York, while the purses will be of a value to insure the filling of all races. To visitors every thing of an honorable character, that can add to their enjoyment or the sport, will be offered while nothing objectionable will be allowed on the ground.

The Bridge Over Long Pond.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

I wish through your paper to correct an error that exists in the minds of some with regard to the notice inviting bids for building a bridge over Long Pond. My object in publishing said notice was simply to ascertain what it would cost to build such a structure anew in comparison with the expense of repairing the present one. I had no thought of letting the job to anyone.

Very Respectfully,

ALEX. H. WEED,
Commissioner.

THE COMING SHOW.

The Malone (N. Y.) Gazette.

A large-sized and appreciative audience greeted Whitmore & Clark's Minstrels at Lawrence Opera house on Saturday evening last. Judging from the roars of laughter and frequent applause, we should say no all were well pleased with the entertainment. The jokes were new, and the music and specialty features good. George M. Clark sang with his oldtime vigor and was enthusiastically received.

The entertainment given by this company is first-class in every respect, devoid of all vulgarity, and bound to be popular everywhere.

Manufacturers.

—The Schofield MFG Co. of No. 73 State St. Albany N. Y. want agents to handle a specialty, 100 per cent profit and a gold watch worth $75 given free. Write at once and secure the agency.

—Give your children a course of treatment in NELLUPION to carry off the morbid secretion produced by the confinement incidental to winter. Lack of exercise produces torpidity of the liver and a general stagnation of physical functions. Nothing will so abundantly and perfectly cleanse the system and bring lost roots to the checks again so promptly as NELLUPION. Wholesale and retail by F. WEED.

—Go to Frazier's for your furniture. Prices very low.

—Frazier's for parlor and bedroom suits. New stock just received.

Weather Prophet Wiggins has placed the next great snow storm for March 18 to 21.

Next year will be the centennial of the town of Salem, which was organized March 23, 1786.

—In the year of 1861 there resided in the vicinity of Ticonderoga a family by the name of Thomson, or Thompson. During a rebellion Thomson engaged in service for Uncle Sam, and was wounded and taken to a hospital, his wife received word of his supposed death. After a time she married a man named Fred Smith; six years ago Smith and his wife were in the employ of L. C. P. Snyler of this place and afterward returned to Ticonderoga. About two years ago we learned of Mrs. Smith's death. During their stay here her daughter (who was only two years old at the time her father's departure) became acquainted with and married a young man living here. Our story is briefly told Tuesday or more years has intervened, and a father meets his daughter in the person of Mrs. Charles Elms.—Westport Cor. Fort Ann Budget.
