A "Dutch treat dinner" will be held at Castorland Baptist Church, 17 at 6:30 p.m. for the committee and commissioner's staff of Black River, Jefferson-Lewis Boy Scout Council.

Mary Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harper, has been named to the president's honor list for the first semester at Potsdam State University College.

Donald Z. Buckingham and Gayle Lamo; Hirschev are among the persons who successfully completed the latest licensing examinations in registered professional nursing administered in November.

Louis Sturtze, 75, died Monday at Lewis County General Hospital. Funeral services were held Thursday at the Vriker Funeral Home with Rev. Albert Coffey, pastor of the Castorland Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Castorland Cemetery. Survivors are his widow, a daughter, and a brother, Roy Sturtze, of Naumburg, and four grandchildren. He was born Nov. 15, 1896, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturtze, and married Marion Beyer June 14, 1921, in Castorland. He was employed by Climax Mfg. Co. more than 40 years. Mr. Sturtze was a charter member of Karcher-Kohler Post, American Legion, and was a veteran of World War I.

Miss Jane Lea Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Davis, 40 Forest Street, Burlington, Vt., became the bride Saturday, March 4, of S. Brown Richardson, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Richardson, 675 South Prospect Street, Burlington, and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richardson, Lowville, and Mrs. Grace Schlieder, Fairview Drive, Lowville, and the late Dr. Clarence Schlieder.

The double ring, candlelight ceremony took place in the College Street Congregational Church, Burlington, at 4 p.m., with Rev. James A. Dalley officiating. The bride and groom composed both the ceremony and the vows.

Jack Grebb was organist and Dr. John K. Schlieder, Lowville, uncle of the groom, was soloist and sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Fill the World with Love" and "One Heart."

Mrs. Richardson is a graduate of Burlington High School and attended the University of Vermont and was graduated in 1970 from Champlain College. She is presently an assistant clerk of the Vermont District Court in Burlington.

Mr. Richardson was graduated from Burlington High School in 1968 and Preceptor Academy in 1969. He is now a junior at Johnson State College, majoring in economics.

Following a week in Jamaica, the couple is residing at 119 Howard Street, Burlington.

Karen M. Zehr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Zehr, has been named Beaver River Central School's Betty Crocker home-maker of tomorrow for 1972. She was chosen on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude examination taken by senior girls on December 7. She will receive a specially designed award chaperon from General Mills, who sponsor the annual education program. She is now eligible for state and national honors.

Karen has been active in the Future Homemakers of America, the Library Club, Girl's Athletic Assn., the Guidance Club and an active member of the 4-H Club.
