Croghan Pool Opening

The Croghan Lions Club will again sponsor the swimming program beginning July 3 and ending August 25. The lifeguard on duty will be Susan Campney. She will also give lessons. Residents are asked to register their children early. They may call 346-6058. Rules governing the pool area are: (1) No diving or jumping from the bridge; (2) No one allowed on the breast of the dam; (3) No one allowed on the wall on the Croghan Island Mill side; (4) No running or pushing on the beach or the floating raft; (5) No swimming when lessons are being given. The lifeguard will be on duty daily, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. Swimming is at the swimmer's own risk after 5 p.m. and on weekends and holidays.

Meda Hobart Graduate

Anthony L. Meda, Lowville, received his bachelor of arts degree June 8 from Hobart College, Hobart, marking its sesquicentennial with its 147th class, and William Smith holding its 61st, together graduated 364 students, the largest in their history. Dr. B. F. Skinner of Harvard University, author of "Beyond Freedom and Dignity," and widely known professor of psychology gave the Phi Beta Kappa address. Meda is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Meda of 5460 Shady Avenue, Lowville.

Yousey Reunion

Annual reunion of the descendants of John Yousey will be held on Sunday, July 9, at the Lowville Fish and Game Club, beginning with a picnic lunch at 1:30 p.m. Each family is asked to take its own table service and beverage.
