CHURCH WEDDING - Miss Karen F. Mackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mackey, Lyons Falls, became the bride of H.
Gary Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Herbert Brown, Port Leyden, on May 27 at 1 p.m., St. Marins Church, Port Leyden, Rev. Daniel Lyddy officiating. Bride was given in marriage by her father, William Mackey.

The bride chose an empire gown of nylon organza styled with a sheer yoke edged with peau de ange lace, high neckline and full sheer sleeves with lace trim. A lace border edged the hemline of the a-line skirt and a detachable chapel train featured re-embroidered lace accent. A queens crown of pearl and crystal held a bouffant veil of illusion with lace edged face veil.

The bride carried a cathedral bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses, with Fuji mums, white pom-poms, babies' breath, and ivy.

Maid of honor was Miss Sue Smith, Port Leyden, friend of the bride. She wore a full a-line gown of nylon organza in blue styled with a high neckline edged with Swiss embroidery and val lace. Trim was repeated on the bodice front and cuffs of the full sheer sleeves. She wore a matching bow cluster headpiece with bouffant face veils.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marcia Krokowski, Miss Lynn Scouten, Miss Sandy Wakefield and junior bridesmaid was Miss Angela Brooks. They wore similar gowns of mint green, pink, yellow and turquoise. Their flowers were a colonial bouquet of mixed color carnations, Miss Susie Doney was matron of honor. She wore a gown styled to match the bride and a queen's crown with bouffant veil.

Ushers were Jim Brown, Jim Bush, Norris Battles and junior usher was Ricky Mackey. They wore matching jackets with color

Best man was Wayne Brown, brother of the groom, Port Leyden. He wore a white pin stripe jacket with shirt to match the maid of honor's dress.

Ushers were Jim Brown, Jim
Bush, Norris Battles and junior
wore matching jackets with color

Augustinian H.S. Closes

Bishop Stanislaus J. Brzana of the Diocese of Ogdensburg has concurred with the decision of June 15 of the Augustinian Academy Board of Education to close the high school section of Augustinian Academy in Carthage as of July 1, 1972. The Bishop accepted the recommendation of the Board in making his decision on June 16.

Bishop Brzana commended the academy and its faculty, students, parishioners, board members, and school centered organizations for their dedication in providing quality education for many years.
Augustinian Academy will continue to provide education in grades 1-8 and high school students will be able to attend Immaculate Heart Central High School in Watertown.

Harold Graves Dead At 71

Harold A. Graves, 71, a resident of Elm Street, Castorland, a retired employe of the Climax Manufacturing Co., died June 18 in the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, where he had been a patient since June 16.
He had been in failing health two months.

The funeral was June 21 at the Virkler Funeral Home, Rev.
Bruce Chapman, pastor of the Beaver Falls United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was to be in Castorland Union Cemetery.

The reception was at Timber Lodge, Glenfield, from 2 to 6 p.m.
They spent their honeymoon in Niagara Falls and Canada. The bride chose a black dress with gold accent and a corsage of white sweetheart roses and white shoes for her going away ensemble.

The bride was graduated from South Lewis Central School in June, 1971, and is now employed by Lewis County General Hospital, Lowville.

The groom was graduated from South Lewis Central School in June, 1966, where shortly after he went into the army, which he spent 13 months active duty in Vietnam. He is now employed by Lowville Oil Company, Lowville, as a mechanic.

The couple will reside at Mechanic Street, Port Leyden.
