Poulsen On Track Team
Dick Poulsen of Lowville is a member of the Cortland State College indoor track team.
A returning letterman, Poulsen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Poulsen of Lowville. He is competing in the distance events for the Red Dragons this season. The senior, a graduate of Lowville Academy High School is majoring in mathematics.
Under Coach Joe Pierson, now in his seventh year as head track coach for the State University College at Cortland, the indoor track team has captured five consecutive titles in the New York State College Track and Field Association.
In three starts this season, the track team has compiled a 2-1, won-lost record, sweeping Syracuse and Rochester and recently losing to Lehigh.

CROGHAN - The annual Croghan Firemen's Banquet was held Saturday night at the V.F.W. Rooms in Lowville.
The report for the year was read as follows: Ambulance traveled 3,089 miles; Lowville hospital calls, 35; V.A. Hospital Syracuse, 3 calls; Watertown Hospital, 9 calls; Carthage Area Hospital, 3 calls; fire calls - three chimney fires, three car fires, three barn fires, one flooded furnace, one forest fire, one refrigerator fire, one house fire, and one lost life; Total fires, 13. The average number of men attending each fire was 30.
Pins awarded for years of service: Five year pins - Bruce LaChausse; Joseph Loconti and Charles Marroll; Ten year pins - Craig Martin and Virgil Widrick; 15 year pins - Allan Buckingham, Ronald Bush, James Marilley and Ira Zehr; 20 year pin - John Campany; 25 year pins - Gilbert Monnat and Howard Norz.
The award for the "Fireman of the Year" was made to Glen Golden, having 32 years of service. New firemen were introduced, including Bruce Mathis, Ronald Norz, Ronald Ritz, Joseph Kalsmas and Stephen Campany.
Bernard Boulio of West Carthage, junior past president of the New York State Firemen's Association, gave a talk on New laws pertaining to the firemen and talked about the Firemen's Home on the Hudson. He stated that the firemen may go there when they retire or need care. He also said that anytime anyone is in the Hudson area they may stop and visit the home.
In closing, a short prayer was given by Father Anthony.
Dancing was enjoyed following the meeting.
The condition of Robert Buell, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Buell of Lowville, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zehr, formerly of Croghan, who recently moved to Lowville, and great grandson of Mrs. James D. (Alice) Zehr, Croghan, remains critical at this writing.
Buell was severely burned last Friday in the employ of a construction company while working on a construction job at a plaza at Sarasota Springs, when a gas main exploded. He was taken to a hospital in Sarasota Springs and then removed to Albany Medical Center in Albany. His mother

At Hawaiian Base
Coast Guard Airman Paul D. Levesque, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Levesque, Brantingham, has reported for duty at the Coast Guard Air Station, Barbers Point, Hawaii. He will be assigned to duties as an Aviation Structural Mechanic to inspect, maintain and repair safety equipment, hydraulics systems and fuselages and wings aboard naval aircraft. He joined the Coast Guard in March 1971.

The monthly meeting of the Town Board will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, March 12, at the office of the town clerk, Mrs. Urban Farney, Lower Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muth have returned to their home in Mechanville after spending a few days here visiting his mother, Mrs. George (Monica) Muth. Bearers for Mrs. Angelina Bush, widow of Clinton Bush, Sr., whose funeral was held Feb. 20 at St. Stephen's Church, Croghan, were Robert Bush, Bernard Bush, Richard Bush, Jr., Keith Bush, Thomas Merry and K. Ralph Bush, all grandsons.

Mrs. Sylvia Sullivan, Grumet Block, was taken by ambulance to St. Stephen's Church, Croghan, where she is being visited by her mother, Mrs. George (Monica) Muth. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritz and family of Camden were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. Albert (Nora) Ritz.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lyndaker, Croghan, have returned home after spending two weeks vacationing in Florida. They visited friends and relatives in Daytona, Sarasota and Orlando and were guests of Hosts Internationale at Colonial Inn on St. Petersburg Beach. Among interesting places visited were Cape Kennedy and Disney World.

Enroute home they were one of many hundreds stranded 32 hours in South Carolina due to the State's record blizzard and stayed at the State Armory at Allendale, where food was provided by the national guard. Thanks to the highway patrol they were given a route around Columbia so left the area long before the main route was open to traffic.

Miss Gerst Engaged
The announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss LuAnne Gerst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerst, Burlington, Iowa, to Peter Beyer, son of Mrs. Nina Beyer, Lowville. Miss Gerst attended South-eastern Iowa College and is currently employed in the Memorial Hospital Pharmacy at Burlington, Iowa. Mr. Beyer manages Beyer's Mens and Boys' Shop in Lowville and also tutors private music students. A July wedding is planned.

ORDER NOW AND SAVE 10% AGWAY
The right combination of Agway fly controls gives you your full money's worth. Less disease. Prevention of milk production loss. Profit protection. Less wasted effort. By ordering now, you'll be getting more than your money's worth - 10% more.
Houseflies carry many livestock diseases, and roundworms and tapeworms, too. Horrific infestations can reduce milk production by as much as 20%. Cattle grub flies account for $1 to $10 million a year in livestock losses.
Can you afford not to follow a sound fly-control program? This is where Agway's Guardian Pest Control Program comes in - with a complete line of products to hit flies hard wherever they happen to be. With animal application, baits, sprays, residuals, fogging.
Your Agway Dairy Enterprise Salesman can help you set up the right fly-control program for your dairy farm. Talk to him soon. Get your order in by March 3 and save yourself 10%.
