Cattle Show

The Senior Champion and Grand Champion, a bull owned by Herbert and Wilbur Farney, took top honors.

The Junior Champion of the Junior Show was a heifer owned by James W. Lee, Herbert and Wilbur Farney entered the animal which was awarded Junior Champion of the Senior Show.

The top awards for showmanship were won by Jan Peterson and Ron Schaefer. Jan won the Senior Division and Ron was first in the Junior Division.

The Lewis County Holstein Club would like to thank the following merchants who donated money toward the plaques and trophies awarded at this year's Black and White Show: Lowville Oil, Foster Millard Equipment, Ross Equipment, Hern Ortleb (Boe-matic Dealer), Lowville Sarge, Lehman Dairy Supplies, Lewis County Trust Company, The National Bank of Northern New York, Blue Seal, Lee Pontiac, Lowville Motors, Eschenlauer Motors, Ronnie Sales and Services, Empire Livestock, Lewis County Livestock, Agway Petroleum. The Lowville Farmers Cooperative donated two show halters, which were awarded to the winners of the Junior and Senior showmanship class.

A traveling trophy was donated by Jones, Lormore, Markham and Carroll, Lowville Veterinarians. This trophy will be awarded each year to the exhibitor with the best three females bred and owned by the exhibitor. The trophy will belong to the first exhibitor who can win it three years in a row. This year the trophy will be in Robert Peterson's Showcase.

Investigate Burglaries

The burglary of $450 in items from a camp on the Brantingham Lake Road, is under investigation by Lowville state police and B.C.L.

The camp of Adolph Kopak was entered sometime between July 15 and 18 and police said entry was gained by cutting a screen on the rear of the building and opening a window.

Taken were two .22 caliber rifles, a table-top television, record player and portable radio.

B.C.L. Investigator Ray Polett and Trooper Matt Donnelly are investigating.
