C. Hartness Dead At 81

Clarence E. Hartness, 81, Lyons Falls, died Sept. 3 in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Utica, where he had been a patient one day. He had been in failing health for the past year.

He was born at Holland Patent, Nov. 12, 1892, son of Thomas and Mary Black Hartness. His younger life was spent in the Stillville area. He had lived in the Lyons Falls area for many years. He was employed by the Gould Paper Company 47 years as a papermaker, retiring in 1961. For the past four months he had made his home with his son in Port Leyden.

On May 12, 1914, he married Rosa Teal in Port Leyden.

Mr. Hartness was a member of St. John's Church, Lyons Falls and a member of the Veterans Club of Gould Paper Company.

Mr. Hartness is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosa T. Hartness, a son, Thomas C., Port Leyden, 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was Sept. 6 at the Trainor Funeral Home and in St. John's Church, Lyons Falls, Rev. Daniel Lyddy, pastor officiating. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Port Leyden.
