

At The Movies

At the Town Hall on Friday, Nov. 9, "Romeo and Juliet," the internationally acclaimed Franco Zeffirelli production, will open at the Town Hall Theatre and it will play through Monday, Nov. 12. This powerful film, beautifully photographed in technicolor introduced the youngest performers ever to play the roles of Shakespeare's ill-starred lovers to the screen - seventeen-

I Was Just Thinking

By Rev. Robert F. Nay

Well, I thought Halloween treated us all quite well. I thought Robert Smith is to be commended for taking over the UNICEF drive through the elementary school. The young folks did a very commendable job.

The Kiwanians are also deserving of praise for sponsoring and supporting the Halloween parade, and I think all of the law enforcement people are to be thanked for seeing that no major damage was realized in our community. The High School Seniors did a fine thing in their costume parade in the afternoon. From this writer's point of view, this Halloween seemed to be one of the nicest in our ability to recall, even by living in several places.

We all, I hope, voted yesterday. I should have mentioned this last week. We have no room or right to WED IN LIVERPOOL - Pamela Anne Calarco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Calarco, Liverpool, became the bride of Joseph Francis Seeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Seeley, Jordan, in a ceremony Sept. 29 in St. Joseph's Church, Liverpool, with Rev. Robert J. Long officiating.

Maid of honor was Miss Kathy Harrou, Liverpool, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Clare Rothchild, friend of the bride, Miss Mary Ella Seeley, sis-

Choir Member

Marion Zehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Zehr, Copenhagen, has been selected as a member to this year's Chamber Choir at Goshen College, Indiana.

The choir sings music of the early American church, contemporary church music, madrigals of the 15th and 16th century. This year the choir has planned a madrigal dinner; a spring tour of Eastern Ohio; and a tentative weekend tour of central Illinois. Dr. Doyle Preheim, associate professor of music at Goshen, will direct the choir. He joined the college last year and is also in his second year with the choir.

Goshen College is a four-year liberal arts college in Northern Indiana. It is owned and controlled by the Menonite Church and has approximately 1,200 students enrolled this year.
