At The Movies

At the Town Hall Theatre, Friday to Monday, Nov. 16-19, "Live and Let Die." "Live and Let Die" is the eighth in the successful series of James Bond films based on the novels of Ian Fleming produced by Albert R. Broccoli and Harry Saltzman. The film marks the debut of Roger Moore in the role of Fleming's indestructible Agent 007, battling against the r-levolent and mysterious black ruler, Dr. Kananga, played by Yaphet Kotto, who plans to dominate the western world with an onslaught of Voodoo and hard drug addiction. He is assisted in his use of the occult by a stunningly beautiful seer named Solitaire, who is portrayed with sensuous innocence by newcomer John Seymour.

The film has plenty of excitement with cars crashing into cars and planes, planes crashing into cars and speedboats cracking up everywhere. Rated PG. Special matinee for Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 17 and 18 - "Alice's Adventure in Wonderland." Its for parents and children alike. Rated G.

NEWS SPORTSWEAR - Whether skiing, snowmobiling or around town, gals this year will be in style with these lightweight quilt jackets with their contrasting stitching. It's a look of elegance with plenty of warmth from Sportswear by Ski-Doo.
