Jan Rowsam, Beaches Bridge, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carney and family, Verona.
For extra special muffins, put a teaspoon of blackberry jam, or any other flavor you might prefer, on top of the muffins before putting them in the oven. The flavor will bake right through. They're so delicious.

West Leyden Notes

By Mrs. Bertha Goodhines
Ph. 348-8570

WEST LEYDEN—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall are the parents of a son Thomas Richard, born Nov. 18 at the Rome Hospital with a weight of eight pounds and four ounces. The couple has one other son.

The P.T.O. officers would again like to remind the students, mothers and the community that the Campbell soup label drive is continuing until Dec. 8. Their is a large box to deposit them at the Victory Store in Boonville. There are more than 70 audio-visual equipment items offered. They need help.

Miss Roberta L. Platt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Platt of West Leyden, was wed to B. Allen Pullman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Lewis and the late Ambrose Pullman of Forestport. The wedding took place in Bradenton, Fla., on October 18. Brad Wilbert is a member of the Adirondack Central School Senior Chorus to perform at the Concord Hotel at Kiamish Lake on Nov. 27 at 8:15. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilbert, Main St., West Leyden, and was chosen from 1,400 students.

The West Leyden Ladies' Auxiliary held a regular meeting at the fire hall on Nov. 12. President Eunice Kwasniewski presided. Minutes of the last meeting and the Treasurer's report were approved. Tillie Fey won the sunshine drawing. Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas party. A tentative date has been set for Dec. 7.

The next regular meeting will be Monday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stinebricker, Sr., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a party given them by their children, Joe, Mike, Mark and Chris Stinebricker and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higby at the West Leyden Hotel, with 125 guests attending. Guests attended from Rome, Yorkville, Ava, West Branch, Lyons Falls, Constableville and West Leyden.

Harry Eason, Rome, spent the Thanksgiving recess with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Goodhines.

Allen Rybicky, Cornell, was home for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rybicky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Seelman entertained the following Thanksgiving Day guests: Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Seelman and two children of Verona; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Nellenback of McKeever; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Nellenback of Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nellenback of Lee Center; Mr. and Mrs. William Platt and daughter of Lee Center; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nellenback and daughter, Bobby Jean of Forestport; and Cecil Nellenback who is attending MVCC of Utica.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Case had their Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sturtevant, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ciboeki, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mazur, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goodhines and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoff. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cunningham, Yorkville, were at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rybicky on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nellenback and family were dinner guests at the home of her sister Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harnett and family of Rome. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Custer, Constableville, also attended.

Harold and Richard Wilhamson spent several days hunting in the southern zone (Steuben County).

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kupic and family, Utica, Mrs. Lillian Samson and son, Sammie, called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodhines on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Stinebricker were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stinebricker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vanarsdale and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Stinebricker.

Glenfield Area News

By Mrs. Alice Kogut
Ph. 376-3377

GLENFIELD—Mrs. Victor Clark, Glenfield R.D., left Nov. 11 for North Fort Meyers, Fla. She returned by airplane with her son-in-law, Bernard Holland, and David Woodall, who has been here for a week's hunting trip. She will stay all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mealus have also left for Florida for the winter. The Glenfield Garden Club will meet December 5 in Roland Reed's basement at 8 p.m. This is the annual Christmas party. Please take exchange gifts, valued from $1 to $2. Ann Young and Marjorie Wanik are co-hostesses.

The South Lewis Home Bureau Chapter will hold a Christmas party December 12 at 12:30 p.m. Members will be notified as to meeting place. This will be a covered dish dinner and those who attend should take table service and exchange of gifts, valued at $1 to $2. Cards will be played following the dinner. All members of the South Lewis Home Bureau Chapter who have signed up to make vinyl bags will meet at the home of Madeline Salsburg Dec. 4 at 9 a.m. Bring a bagged lunch; beverages will be served.

As winter rolls around, winter sports at South Lewis Junior High School have begun in full swing. In wrestling, the Falcons are sporting a small but well-experienced team. Returning Varsity Lettermen and starters on the varsity squad are: Senior, Ken Kogut, 112 pounds; Senior, Mike Cleveland, 119 pounds; Junior, John Munger, 126 pounds; Senior, Gerhard Manger, 145 pounds; and Senior, Steve Markham, 177 pounds. Other hopefuls for the varsity squad are Ed Markham, Randall Nellenback, Jeff Meiss, Tom Gorzycy and Tim O'Brien. The rest of the line up will come from Neil Austin, Peter Weber, Steve Stanley, Joe Markham, Chuck Markham, Louie Tiller and Steve Mooney. The Falcons start their wrestling schedule on November 28 when they travel to Clifton. Fine for a non-league match is their first home match is on December 6 at 6 p.m., when South Lewis is host to Alex Bay. The Falcons are under the guidance of a new coach, Kevin Abel. They are looking for a successful season with much of their backbone coming from their senior starters.

On Nov. 17, the beginning of deer hunting in Southern Tier zone, you would of thought war had been declared. Shooting was heard from every direction. One party of four from Glenfield one from Lowville and three from Port Leyden returned with three bucks and one doe and many stories about "You should of seen the one I missed."

On Nov. 17, the funeral for Mrs. Eunice Nagy was held in St. Mary's Church, Glenfield. She will be sorely missed not only by her sons and husband but by neighbors and friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to her family and the family of Dorance Ramsey on the loss of his mother, Miss Ramsey. Henry Pomerville had a nice eight point buck.
